Residents raise concerns over plans for new supermarket

A SUPERMARKET chain with plans to build a new store in Chasetown has sparked fury among residents who claim it will be a "danger and an eyesore."

Barry Brevitt, of High Street, is setting up a petition with nine other residents who will be directly affected by the development.

Aldi plans to demolish the former Bridge Cross Working Men's Club, in Bridge Cross Road, and replace it with the store. If it goes ahead a 20 foot wall would be erected along the bottom of the campaigners' gardens.

The application will be discussed at a planning meeting at Lichfield District Council on August 30. Town councillors have expressed concerns over the development.

The entrance and exit to the building would come out on Milestone Way which Mr Brevitt said would also increase the number of accidents on the busy stretch.

Eyesore

"It is daunting to think when we look out of our windows all we will see is a brick wall – it's going to be an eyesore," he said. "Milestone Way has seen many accidents over the years and we feel these plans will affect the area rather than contribute to it."

Since July 1 2005 to June 30 2010 there have been 15 accidents at the site, including one fatality, a 10-year-old boy.

Councillor Rod Campbell of Burntwood Town Council said: "While we support the proposal in principle members asked that it should be called in for further discussion.

"We also asked that areas including access and egress were looked into and if approved a pelican crossing considered from Sycamore Road across Milestone Way, which is a prominent and sensitive site."

A day of fun for all the family

FAMILIES can enjoy a packed day of free fun and games at the Museum of Cannock Chase this weekend.

The Cannock Chase District National Family Play Day is being held at the Valley Road museum, in Hednesford, on Sunday, between 12pm and 4pm.

Activities will include a giant teepee, a storyteller, Punch and Judy shows, a bouncy castle, face painting, balloon modelling, arts and crafts activities, and play sessions with the council's play rangers.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, Cannock Chase Council's culture and sport leader, said: "Our Play Rangers' National Play Day and the museum's Family Day have always been really popular events.

"Combining the two will create a really magical day for families.

"All of the activities won't cost a penny, which is great news for parents and guardians in the current economic climate."

HEALTH FEAR AS TENANT IN REPAIRS WAIT

A PREGNANT Cannock woman has complained of "appalling" service from a housing association as the wait to repair her damaged property extended to four weeks.

Danielle Jones, who is nearly seven months pregnant, originally contacted Midland Heart at the start of the month after her toilet became disconnected from the wall in the bathroom.

This caused a huge leak which gushed down into her kitchen below "like rain" and caused damage to walls and floorboards.

Initial investigations from Midland Heart staff found that the toilet had been leaking under floorboards for a while, causing a large build up and a terrible smell.

Desperate

Miss Jones, aged 19, said she had been seen by at least four people from Midland Heart but the problems had not yet been fixed.

"They keep coming round and saying they can't fix it," she said. "They had to rip up my floor in the bathroom and it really stank in there – it must have been leaking for years. It's a real concern for my boy who is due in October."

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

The Cannock Road resident, who lost her two-month-old baby to cot death last year, said she had been going for regular health checks to make sure her living conditions were not damaging her health.

Miss Jones, who lives with her partner, said she was desperate for the repairs to be completed.

"The whole place is a state and there's damage everywhere," she added. "I called Midland Heart last week and they had only just officially lodged the complaint on their system.

"They've passed me from pillar to post and no one has taken responsibility. "The lack of communication between them is ridiculous – it's just not fair on me."

Miss Jones said plasterboard on the bathroom wall became damaged and was replaced with just two planks of wood to reinforce it. She added stains had been left all over the carpet and a bathroom panel needed replacing.

Repair staff are due to visit Miss Jones next week but she said she wasn't hopeful of the problems being fixed.

Bill Pearch, assistant director of strategic asset management at Midland Heart, said: "We are sorry for the frustration caused.

"It appears that there were some communication issues that caused a slight delay.

"We have now assured the resident that the work will be completed as a priority."

Midland Heart manages more than 32,000 homes with offices in Birmingham, Coventry, Leicester, Stoke and Wolverhampton.

New Pitmen kit launch at free friendly

FREE entry is being offered to a Hednesford Town football match this weekend.

The Pitmen take on Warrington Town in a pre-season friendly at Keys Park with no charge for the tickets.

Club chairman Steve Price said he believed that Saturday's game offered a great opportunity for the discerning football fan to watch a young side free of charge and support local football.

"The club have made big strides in the past 12 months and Saturday is an opportunity to offer something back to our supporters and open our doors for no charge," the chairman added.

"We have some big home games in the opening month of the season against Chester and Stafford and we hope that the people who attend on Saturday return with their families through the course of the season."

The game coincides with the club's kit launch for the new 2011-12 season and a bumper holiday crowd could be on the cards. Kick off at Keys Park is 3pm.

Singles group in move to new HQ

A SINGLES group which recently netted a £1,000 windfall has moved to a new base at a popular hotel and restaurant.

Fresh Start, which had been based at Five Ways Inn in Heath Hayes, is moving to The Barns at Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington.

The group will continue to meet at 8pm on a Monday and will stage its first meeting at the Barns on August 1.

The group which is run by Margaret McCullough, Jennifer Thomas and Geraldine Lavender, were handed £1,000 by the Chase Council for Voluntary Service through the Staffordshire County Council Wellbeing Fund.

They trio also operate a Dinner Club and, with events organised throughout the Staffordshire and Warwickshire areas over the coming months, are urging single people to book up and join in the fun.

Fresh Start is looking forward to a wine tasting and vineyard tour on August 26.

Holidays

It is also organising a weekend in Bath from September 9 to 11 and between November 4 and 9 the group has organised a turkey and tinsel trip to the Isle of Wight.

Margaret from Heath Hayes, said: "The Five Ways has been a really good base and we are very grateful to them for allowing us to meet there. But we are now looking forward to our move to the Barns.

"We have around 30 members and it is a really fun group."

Jennifer from Hednesford, added: "Fresh Start and the Dinner Club offers a great opportunity for like-minded people to meet up and enjoy themselves at organised holidays and days and nights out."

Dinner Club membership costs £35 for the year and £52 for Fresh Start with a £75 cut down price for joining both. For more information call Margaret on 07821 054522 or Jennifer on 01543 423193.

Bat walk by wildlife trust

THE Cannock Group of the Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is holding a Bat Walk with the South East Staffs Bat Group this weekend.

It takes place on Shoal Hill on Saturday (July 30).

All are welcome and participants are asked to meet in the car park in Cocksparrow Lane at 9.15pm.

The Staffordshire Men Richard Salt, Colin Upton, Hal Eardley, John Carver and Barry Yeats play at the Wakes

IT WAS time to step back in time for lovers of the swinging 60s as visitors to the Burntwood Wakes held their traditional finale.

Fans of all ages converged on Burntwood Rugby Club on Sunday (July 24) to hear golden oldies such as Dave Berry, who shot to fame with his hit The Crying Game, Chip Hawkes of The Tremeloes, ex-ELO and The Move drummer Bev Bevan, Geoff Turton, The New Amen Corner and The Ivy League, who sang Tossing and Turning.

The Sixties Summer Festival marked the end of a weekend of music and entertainment which kicked off on Friday with the Wakes Unsigned, giving local bands got the chance to prove they were the next big thing.

Bungee

Saturday featured a free family fun day with juggling, magic tricks, music, dancing, arts and crafts, a bungee trampoline, hair braiding, temporary tattoos, an inflatable and a skateboard ramp.

The Staffordshire Festival Orchestra provided a traditional proms concert in the evening with a fireworks show closing the night.

Organiser of Sunday's Sixties festival Brian Yeates said: "The weather put everyone in a good mood so the atmosphere was fantastic."

Mats to brew up storm at auction

A COLLECTION of 20,000 beer mats – believed to be the biggest of its kind – goes under the hammer in Penkridge tomorrow (Friday).

The unusual lot also includes a significant number of cans from a wide range of brewers.

The memorabilia will be sold at Cuttlestones' auctioneers and valuers.

Amassed by a single collector from Birmingham, it includes what is claimed to be the world's biggest beer mat. Among the drained beer cans are special edition sets such as Carling's Lady series which featured pin-up style characters.

The collection, described as being in exceptionally good condition, is a "true rarity" according to auctioneer and valuer Dave Eglington.

He said: "This has got to be a unique collection, given its sheer size and diversity, and we wouldn't be surprised if it's not the largest of its kind.

"The collection has been meticulously kept and represents an exceptional opportunity for those with an interest in brewing ephemera."

The mats and cans go up for bids at the Pinfold Lane auction room on Friday at 10am, with online bidding also available, visit www.cuttlestones.co.uk

Explosion at sub-station

AN explosion in an electricity sub-station took off part of the a business's roof.

A transformer inside the sub-station at Co-ordinators Service (Engineering) Ltd in Hazel Lane Industrial Estate in Great Wyrley blew up at 5.14pm on Monday (July 25).

Crews doused the fire on the rest of the roof. Staff were evacuated staff and a 50-metres exclusion zone was set up until the power was isolated. The explosion also caused the loss of power to some neighbouring parts of the village.

Fire tackled at new unit

ARSONISTS set fire to a van and a brand new loading unit in Cannock, causing thousands of pounds worth of damage.

Firefighters were called to a building site in New Hayes Road, opposite the Windmill Service Station, in Rawnsley just after 3pm on Saturday (July 23).

School's out forever as staff call it a day

Colleagues and pupils bid farewell

LONG-SERVING school staff have been bidding a final fond farewell to pupils and colleagues.

With thousands of pupils and staff now on their summer holidays, many have been saying their last goodbyes.

These included seven members of staff from Cheslyn Hay Sport & Community High School, who with 190 years of service between them, all retired on the same day.

Teaching assistants Kath Brooks, aged 59, and Ann Healey, 64, have each given 25 years service. Examinations manager Robin Woodward, from Rugeley also spent a quarter of a century at the school.

Site supervisor Michael Rushton, 61, from Pelsall, has worked at the school for 33 years, while head of music Patricia Collins, 58, from Handsacre, retired after 24 years.

Andy Plant, 57, from Codsall, has been at the school for 26 years as a learning support unit manager, and deputy head Dave Ryder, 61, from Cannock, has worked at the school for the past 32 years.

John Martin, head teacher at the Saredon Road school, said: "Between them they have a total of some 190 years service. This is a massive achievement and a major testament to their wonderful commitment and great loyalty to the young people, to their families and to the local community."

Two lunchtime supervisors at a Rugeley have this week left the playground for the last time, after clocking up 49 years between them – longer than the school itself which is 40-years-old this year.

Etching Primary School said goodbye on Tuesday (July 26) to Barbara McManus and Linda Smith.

Barbara, aged 73, has worked at the school in Penk Drive North for 20 years, and 65-year-old Linda has been there for 29.

They work as part of a team of supervisors who look after the children on the playground during breaks, and will be missed by both staff and pupils at the school.

Missed

They will leave along with Year One teacher Jacquie Tranter, who has been at the school 15 years and is taking early retirement.

Headteacher Marie Smith said: "They have been a big part of the school for a long time and will be greatly missed. They have been very committed members of staff."

A nursery deputy manager called it a day after caring for children in Burntwood for two decades.

Annette Grimmett, aged 59, said a fond farewell last Friday (July 22) to youngsters and colleagues at Little People Pre-School Nursery based at Boney Hay School in Burntwood.

The mother-of-four, who previously worked as a primary school teacher in Berkshire, said she was "very sad" to be leaving after 20 years.

Youngsters at the nursery helped to make a banner which read "Annette – We Will Miss You".

Nursery office manager Tricia Pickerill paid, saying: "She has looked after a lot of children over the past 20 years and they have also benefited from her experience.

"We will miss having her at the nursery."

Amazon move is welcomed by business chiefs

BUSINESS chiefs from North Staffordshire have welcomed Amazon's plans to create 900 jobs in Rugeley, saying it will have a knock-on benefit for the rest of the county.

The online retailer's decision has been lauded by councillors and chamber of commerce members who are pleased to hear that the site will be up and running before the end of 2012.

Bryan Carnes, chief executive of the North Staffordshire Chamber of Commerce, said: "Some of the people who go to work at Amazon will be living in Stafford and Stone."

He added: "We should welcome that inward investment as we would welcome it in Cannock and South Cheshire. There is a long history of people commuting from Stoke-on-Trent to places like Crewe, Stafford and Rugeley.

Investment

"As long as the investment is within reasonable travelling distance then it means jobs for our area.

"It's much better to have investment like this in Cannock or Rugeley than in Birmingham, Coventry, Redditch, Manchester, Salford and all the other places they could have gone."

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley said the move shows the area is "back up and running" after hearing the retail industry giant purchased an empty site at Towers Business Park in Lea Hall.

Company's web boost

A SPECIALIST laser cutting business in Cannock has unveiled a state-of-the-art online system that will enable customers to get quotes and place orders around the clock.

Laser Process, established in 1990, has spent the last year working with laser cutting IT specialists ipLaser to develop the new system that bosses say will bring an extra dimension to their customer service.

The Australian system – which the company has christened LaserQuote24/7 – will allow existing and potential customers to obtain a quote within minutes any time of the day or night.

Managing director Dave Lindsey said: "For our customers it's about us helping them manage their business more efficiently."

Green Flag status for parks again

FOUR Cannock Chase parks have been recognised as among the best in the country after retaining their Green Flag status.

Elmore Park in Rugeley, Ravenhill Park, Brereton, Castle Ring in Cannock Wood and Cannock Park all held on to the Green Flag Awards they won last year.

The awards reward good use of green space, well-maintained facilities and high standards of safety and security.

It was the third time in a row for Cannock Park, Castle Ring and Ravenhill Park, while Elmore Park won for the second time.

Deputy Council Leader Councillor Janos Toth, with responsibility for the environment, said: "Staff work hard throughout the year to ensure facilities are maintained to a high standard."

All four sites have the chance to receive a further award from the Green Flag Plus Partnership called the People's Choice Award, which is voted for by the public.

Shoppers warned on purse theft

SHOPPERS are being urged to safeguard their purses following a spate of thefts across stores in Staffordshire.

Between July 21 and July 25 offenders have struck in supermarkets and shops in Lichfield, Burntwood, Rugeley, Cannock, Stone, Tamworth and Stafford.

All of the victims have been female and many of them elderly. Purses or wallets have been taken from them or their bag, or the bags themselves have been stolen. On two of the occasions the thieves have also tried to withdraw money from their victim's accounts using stolen bank cards.

Superintendent Juliet Prince, from Staffordshire Police, said: "We're obviously investigating potential links between these crimes. On some occasions, victims have been distracted by being engaged in conversation with the thieves before realising their purse has gone.

"It appears that both male and female offenders are involved and are deliberately targeting elderly women or mothers with pushchairs. We are asking shoppers to be vigilant and to safeguard their purses and bags at all times – particularly if a stranger tries to start a conversation with them."

Shoppers are advised to keep their valuables close and out of sight at all times and avoid carrying large amounts of cash or exposing pin numbers when withdrawing money.

Anyone who sees anything suspicious, or has any information about the crimes, should call Staffordshire Police on 0300 123 4455.

Council office is open to the public

CANNOCK Chase Council's area office in Hednesford has re-opened to the public.

The service which was limited to appointments only from May, as a result of this year's budget setting, has returned following a reallocation of staff.

The enquiry service, based in Hednesford Library, in Market Street, will be available between 9am and 5pm, from Monday to Friday, and no appointments are needed.

Councillor George Adamson, leader of Cannock Chase Council, said: "We were disappointed at the closure of the office in Hednesford so I'm delighted that we have been able to open it again for members of the community."

It also runs alongside another scheme, introduced last year, for benefit claimants, which has seen the council reduce the time to process benefits+ fall from 25 to nine days.

To book an appointment e-mail counterservices@cannockchasedc.gov.uk or call 01543 462621.

Evening home visits can also be arranged.

Chance to grill MP on range of services

MP Aidan Burley will be on hand to offer residents advice on a range of services available across Cannock.

Chase Community Showcase will take place in The Premier Suite, High Green, on August 3, between 10am and 2pm.

Mr Burley and his team will be available to talk to visitors about the services which include employment, training and housing information. For more information contact Claire Wixon on 01543 502447.

MORE than 2,500 people joined in the celebrations of 40 years of Cannock's town twinning link with Datteln with a Party in the Park.

Since 1971 Cannock Chase Council has had close and long-established relationships with the German town. And the Party in the Park was held last Sunday, to celebrate the ruby anniversary of the partnership.

Party in the Park kicked off with Cannock Highland Pipe Band who opened the event with a march through the park. Performances were also provided by Rugeley Power Station Brass Band, West Hill Steel Band, Chadsmoor Choral Society, Chase Day Service and The Shine. The Munich Bierkeller Men brought a touch of Germany to the show by performing their traditional Oompah show.

Children enjoyed a range of free activities throughout the day including games with the Play Rangers, meeting the Council's community hero, arts and crafts, balloon modelling, circus skills, bouncy castle and slide, fun fair rides and a traditional Punch and Judy show.

Councillor John Beddows, Chairman of Cannock Chase Council, said: "It was great to see so many people enjoying the event and visiting Cannock Park.

"I'd like to personally thank everyone who helped to make this event such a huge success".

Photos of the event are now available to view on the Council's Facebook page – search for Cannock Chase District.

Calendar of walks revealed

A POPULAR walking group has published its walks for the forthcoming month.

The Mid-Staffs Ramblers, which has almost 300 members and regularly holds weekend, midweek and evening walks throughout the year, together with social events, holidays and weekends away.

On August 3, a 8.5 mile walk to Longnor and Hollingsclough has been arranged, leaving The Wildwood pub on Cannock Road, Stafford at 9am. Contact Margaret or John on 01785 251926 for further details.

On Sunday, August 14, a 10-miler will take members to historic Ironbridge and Much Wenlock, departing from Penkridge Methodist Church at 9am. Contact Sheila or Tony on 01902 850032.

Prospective members are invited to try free taster walks to test their stamina. One of these has been organised for Saturday, August 20, which will take walkers on a 7.5 mile trail around Tutbury, near Burton-on-Trent.

For information call 01283 812023.

Survey by authority

CANNOCK Chase District Council is asking for residents' views on how well it communicates with them.

Corporate improvement leader Councillor Dennis Dixon said: "We want to improve the way Cannock Chase Council communicates with residents and informs them of news and information."

"The way we can do this is changing rapidly, with social media sites like Twitter and Facebook, as well as smartphones, offering new ways to communicate."

The survey asks residents how they would like to access information in future and can be completed at www.cannockchasedc.gov.uk

Paper copies can be filled in at council receptions.

Insight into mining past

VISITORS can get an insight into Cannock's mining heritage during a festival in September.

The Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, will host the event on September 10 and 11.

Organised by the Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society, it will include displays and films from 11am-4pm.

Call 01543 877666 for more details.

Charities are quids in thanks to pigs on parade

Festival auction brings home the bacon

The decorated pigs in the grounds of the cathedral

Visitors view the pigs before the auction begins

THE organisers of the Lichfield Festival found a novel way to bring home the bacon for charities – by auctioning off 30 model pigs.

The decorated pigs were displayed around the city for the duration of its 30th festival which took place from July 6 to 17 and closed with the auction.

More than 500 people attended, with 150 registering to bid, and even one telephone bidder, as the auction racked up £17,000 for charity.

Richard Bateman, festival co-ordinator, said: "The money we raised from the auction surpassed all expectations. The whole festival went terrifically well and this shows how well we have done."

The life-size model pigs were decorated by school and community groups, and attracted great interest from the general public throughout the 10 days they were on show.

Appeal

All the pigs were given names, such as Hamelot, Pigasso and Mr Porky, and were sold for £260 to £1,300 each.

The most expensive pig, Lichfield Cathedrals Pearl-Margarita, was designed by Lichfield Calligraphy group with Peter Halliday, and the money went towards Lichfield Cathedral's East End Appeal. Year 10 pupils from Pool Hayes Community School, in Willenhall, sold off their Steven Squealberg pig for a meaty £520.

The school chose for half of the money to go to Compton Hospice while the other will go to the auctions nominated charities.

Art teacher Dave Barker said: "The students had so much pride in seeing their pig auctioned off."

Charles Hanson, of Hansons Auctioneers and BBC's Bargain Hunt, took the gavel, while the parade and Auction was sponsored by Packington Pork.

Money raised through the auction went to charities like The Autism Society, Help For Heroes and Midlands Air Ambulance.

Beavers celebrate 25 years

YOUNGSTERS from a Cheslyn Hay beaver group marked the organisation's 25th birthday party with a sleepover pary.

Group leaders from the 1st Cheslyn Hay Beavers laid on a weekend of activities including circus-style stalls, a magic and puppet show, disco and a treasure hunt. They intend to keep the celebrations going with more events throughout the year.

The youngsters, all aged between six and eight, tried their hand at hook-a-duck, hoopla, tombola and other stalls and enjoyed a two-hour show with children's entertainer Deano.

They camped under canvas inside the scout hut in Rosemary Road and spent the following morning searching for clues around the park.

Group Leader, Fiona Woodhouse, said: "We want to make this year one to remember for our Beavers and the birthday party sleepover is the first of many events to come.

The group meets every Wednesday from 6.30 to 8pm. Email iona at chez zobeavers@aol.com

50 years of school

THE Archbishop of Birmingham is to visit a Cannock school to mark its 50th anniversary.

Cardinal Griffin RC High School, off Stafford Road, will mark the anniversary on November 1 when Dr Bernard Longley will say mass at the school.

The first pupils were admitted in 1961 and the event, starting at 7pm, is open to pupils past and present, staff and friends of the school.

On October 15 the school will hold a celebration ball and buffet where former pupils, staff and friends are invited.

Tickets for the event at Bar Sport's Premier Suite, in High Green, cost £15. Book on 01543 502215.

Circus duo clown around at library

JUGGLING, balancing and plate-spinning were among the highlights when the fun of the circus came to Norton Canes library.

Clown duo Dippy and Flip taught 25 aspiring young performers a host of basic circus skills in a big top-themed workshop. The event, which ran over two hours at the Burntwood Road venue, was held as part of this year's Summer Reading Challenge.

The annual event encourages children to read six books before the start of the new school year in September.

The free event was open to youngsters aged seven to 11 and will be repeated at Rugeley Library, in Anson Street on August 12 from 2pm to 4pm. Again places are limited to 25 children and must be booked in advance.

Norton Canes library development officer Karen Cotton said: "This event was really popular and was oversubscribed.

"We did it to encourage children to take up the Summer Reading Challenge."

Ex-chairman aids charities

TWO worthy causes have been boosted by the former Burntwood Town Council chairman's charity fund.

Councillor Doug Constable raised the money during his year in office and presented cheques of £1,107 to the Midlands Air Ambulance and Macmillan Cancer Support.

Forestry panel may still pay Chase visit

A GOVERNMENT panel tasked with determining the future of the country's forests may now visit Cannock Chase.

An independent panel that advises the Environment Secretary had earlier ruled out visiting the Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty – casting doubts over the Chase's future.

However, Cannock MP Aidan Burley has persuaded a member of the panel to reconsider its original decision.

Mr Burley met with the deputy head of the secretariat for the Independent Panel for Forestry Mike Seddon to express the strength of feeling about the future of Cannock Chase Forest.

The MP said: "The official line was that they cannot visit every forest in the country."

Mr Burley said the panel had a quota of different forest types which they needed to visit and areas similar to the Chase were already covered.

Dossier

He added: "Essentially there are no visits to Staffordshire or the Midlands so the area has been very unrepresented."

At the meeting, Mr Burley presented a dossier about Cannock Chase and Mr Seddon said he would go back to the panel and look again at a potential visit to the area.

If the idea is rejected, the Conservative MP says he will push for a meeting with members of the panel where they can speak to local campaigners.

The panel's deadline for its inquiry has been extended until April, with a progress report due this November.

Mr Burley added: "I felt it was a constructive meeting, in which I believe Mr Seddon came away with a clear idea of the local people's passion for our greatest asset."

Mark Davis, who heads the Save Cannock Chase campaign group, has posted on the group's Facebook page: "We're just in the process of finalising our submission to the Independent Panel on Forestry's 'Call for Views'.

"If you fancy telling them what you think, you've got until the end of the month."

Patient died after being discharged

Barry Harris

A BURNTWOOD father-of-three died days after being discharged from hospital – despite complaining of abdominal pain following a knee replacement operation, an inquest heard.

Barry Harris, a former civil engineer, suffered a fatal bowel obstruction three days after being released from Burton's Queen's Hospital.

Relatives of the 68-year-old, a grandfather-of-one, told the inquest in Burton, that they had repeatedly raised concerns about his condition before he was sent home. The inquest heard Mr Harris suffered with a swollen stomach and was unable to go to the toilet for nine days after undergoing surgery on October 11. But he was discharged after surgeons carried out a procedure to unravel his gut.

He collapsed at home on October 23 and paramedics were unable to save him.

A post-mortem found Mr Harris died from an obstruction in the lower intestine due to recurrent twisting.

Deputy coroner Louise McCabe concluded at last Wednesday's hearing (July 20) that there was insufficient evidence to rule Mr Harris died of neglect or failings in care. She recorded a verdict of death by natural causes.

Mr Harris' widow Valerie, 68, is now launching legal action against the hospital.

Relatives claim medics failed to identify Mr Harris was suffering from a bowel obstruction.

After the hearing, retired teacher Mrs Harris, of Rugeley Road, said: "I'm so angry about the care Barry received. He put his trust in those doctors and, in my opinion, they let him down very badly."

After the inquest, Laura Daly, of Irwin Mitchell solicitors, the firm representing the family, said: "Barry's care raises a number of urgent questions."

Queen's medical director Craig Stenhouse offered his condolences to the family but said he could not comment on individual cases.

Joseph Johnson, aged seven, and fellow Sherbrook Primary School pupils at Cannock Community fire station with crew manager Andrea Johnson

Fire station tour for youngsters

CHILDREN from across the district dropped in on the new Cannock Community Fire Station as part of an open week.

Pupils from Heath Hayes, Sherbrook, Littleton Green, St Lukes and Jerome Primary schools were among those to have a tour of the new facilities.

Area commander for Cannock Stuart Claughton said: "A number of schools have been following the progress of the build and contributed to the time capsule we buried in the grounds, so we wanted to invite them in first."

Drop in sessions will take place today (Thursday) and tomorrow from10am and noon and from4-7pm. A family fun day takes place at the Hednesford Road venue on Saturday (July 30) from11am-4pm.

Holiday fun for children

CHILDREN aged four to 14 can take part in a number of holiday activities at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre.

The fun starts on Monday, August 1, at the Saredon Road venue. Full details are available on 01922 417790.

Stand up for us, not Government

EVERY week I read The Chronicle and am forever seeing our MP in the newspaper. However, I do not actually see him doing anything for Cannock Chase.

We have found out that he has moved out of our constituency because living here was like being in a 'goldfish bowl'. Well he is our Member of Parliament and before the election, he promised to live in the constituency, drive on local roads, pay local taxes and buy his food locally.

If he is not comfortable living there, among the people who elected him and who he is here to serve, then what kind of a message is that about his new politics of change?

During the election and after he was elected, Mr Burley said he would put party politics aside and stand up for the people of Cannock Chase. Another admirable comment, but all I've seen him do so far is stand up for the Government and support their savage cuts.

He praised our former MP, Dr Tony Wright, for his independent attitude on issues and for not being afraid to vote against his party and he agreed would do the same.

However, he has not been an independent voice at all. He is now the Transport Secretary's Parliamentary Private Secretary, which means he obeys the Ministerial Code and only ever supports his party.

This is hardly the independence he promised us. As he proudly states on his website, "Becoming a PPS has traditionally been seen as the first rung on the Ministerial ladder..."

Clearly Mr Burley fancies himself as a Government Minister, rather than being the best MP for Cannock Chase that he can be.

This surely shows us all we need to know – Mr Burley has his eyes on a bigger job, rather than simply being a good constituency MP.

I suggest that Mr Burley should stop trying to be seen in places that will grab him headlines and actually stand up for the people of Cannock Chase like he was elected to do.

W DAVIES,
RUGELEY

Replacing one mess with another

WITH the new universal benefit coming into being, would it not be better that the Government sorted out the mess the present benefits are in?

The ones I am talking about are the Employment Support Allowance (ESA) and the Disability Living Allowance (DLA). These benefits are messed up by the bureaucrats and the people that are running the benefits. What is the use of replacing one mess with another?

The problem is: You apply for both benefits, the ESA will almost certainly be refused and have to go to an appeal, which at this moment in time is running at a two-year backlog. Use of the DLA is refused because you do not get the points, but the regulations and the points that you need to get this benefits shows that you do.

What bugs me most is the fact ESA applicants who have been turned down are doing so because the company is being paid by the Government to get as many back to work as possible, with a bonus for each one they pass able to work. When the Government goes out of its way to pick on those that are too weak or disabled to fight back, then it is time to look at their priorities. People who wait for benefits that are suffering financially because of the incompetence is against their human rights and I will be looking at the legal rights these people have in the EU courts

Planning to raise more awareness in the future

WITH reference to the article "Mothers Upset at Use of Terminology" which was featured in The Chronicle on July 14.

This letter deeply upset me as I am 16 years of age and trying to make a difference to the community and people's lives changing it for the better.

I understand that some readers may not have fully understood how the word 'suffer' came across in a previous article and I wish to explain the terms that was meant by the word.

Although a person/child with Down Syndrome does not suffer directly they do suffer from the attachments of the syndrome including looks, stares and taunts from others if they were to have a different look to another person.

Some people with Down's can also suffer from the physical side of the disability, for instance if they only have restricted walking ability. A person could suffer emotionally from the name calling, perhaps.

All people throughout their life will suffer at some point whether it be physically mentally or emotionally. With this lady saying "well adjusted 12-year-old daughter" this suggests that her daughter may have suffered slightly from something above before and this means she has now adapted and adjusted to the disability.

Personally all I was trying to do was raise awareness of the disability and put across the problems these children/people face in day to day life. This is why I organised a sponsored walk for the Down Syndrome Association. Without the support from the Express & Star and The Chronicle then I would not have had so many people turn up on the day as the article was a phenomenal support for us and we wish their future help in any other events we wish to do.

Raising awareness of the disability is all I plan to do for however long it takes. We raised £1,018.30 on June 26.

The Down Syndrome Association gratefully appreciated this money which will be used towards funding for children, people or families in need of the support they provide. I do plan to do more events in the future including a Halloween disco.

There will be a walk next year on national Down Syndrome day, March 21, places still to be confirmed.

I would like to give a big thank you to the Express & Star and The Chronicle for supporting me in my past event and also staying with me through my journey of many more events.

I would also like to thank everyone in the community that has supported me throughout my on-going journey.

If you don't have it, you can't spend it!

WHILE I will always totally respect the right of anyone to speak their mind I am getting a little tired of Helen of Hednesford writing as if she speaks for everyone.

A couple of weeks back she said that the sooner we got the coalition Government out and returned the previous administration the sooner our troubles would be over!

Well, either she has the shortest memory or she is so very well off that she is insulated from the effects of the hardship and grief caused by the enormous debt resulting from the total financial mismanagement and wild borrowing of the last 10 years.

What does she want a Labour government back for? To go on digging the hole ever deeper so that not even our grandchildren will have any hope of being free of debt?

Margaret Thatcher had one thing right, you can't spend what you haven't got!

REALISTIC OF RUGELEY

Incensed over rapid change to academies

AS a parent of children at both Hagley Park and Fair Oak schools, I am incensed at how quickly, both of these have changed to academy status.

There has been very little time and consideration of how the parents feel about this big upheaval. We have had very little communication on the change over.

I am most angry over the changing of the school uniforms. Whoever chose the new colours have not taken into consideration the surrounding primary schools and their specific colours which Rugeley town identifies with. Also, the traditional colours of the two secondary schools have been totally ignored, bearing in mind that Fair Oak only changed uniform two years ago. There is also the lack of availability to purchase this said new uniform and whats going to happen to all the hundreds of old uniforms?

Earlier open date hope for flagship Tesco

THE flagship Tesco superstore at the heart of Hednesford town centre's £50million redevelopment could open by Christmas 2012 – weeks earlier than originally planned.

The 80,000sq ft store in Hednesford, as well as a 10,000sq ft community centre, form the second phase of ambitious plans to transform the town.

Developer St Modwen revealed this week phase one of its Hednesford Gateway development, which includes a new bingo club and cadet building, was on track to be finished within weeks.

Bosses last week brought forward the expected completion date for phase two from "early 2013" to Christmas 2012.

Progress

They showed councillors during a tour of the site on Monday (July 25) how the works were progressing.

St Modwen development surveyor, Mark Watkins, said: "We are delighted with the progress made to date on the Hednesford Gateway scheme.

"The town has waited a long time for this development to reach fruition and we are pleased to have made swift progress in delivering phase one and preparing for phase two."

Construction began in April. The first phase of works includes new purpose built premises for Hollywood Bingo Club.

New premises are also being built for the Reserve Forces and Cadets Association.

'I'll have that' says armed robber outside store

Thief grabs empty cashbox from guard

AN ARMED robber held up a security guard outside a busy Burntwood supermarket in front of shocked onlookers and snatched a cash box.

The thief shouted "I'll have that, thanks" before he fleeing the scene on the back of a waiting motorbike.

However, police say the metal box was empty as the security firm had been delivering cash to the supermarket, not picking it up.

The raider, wielding a knife, struck at Morrisons store in Milestone Way in Burntwood, at 12.30pm last Wednesday (July 20) as the guard was returning to his van, parked outside the entrance. A 32-year-old AA sales assistant from Great Wyrley, who did not want to be named, saw the robber approach.

"He grabbed hold of the box and went 'I'll have that, thanks' and ran to a bike about four metres away.

He was in such a hurry he nearly fell off," she said. "I couldn't believe it, I thought it was a joke.."

Police are also looking for the occupants of a green Citroen Saxo which was parked at the store.

Morrisons in Burntwood, where an armed robber grabbed an empty cashbox

Knife

Staffordshire Police spokesman Peter Bate said: "The offender, dressed in a motorcycle helmet and leathers, was carrying a knife although he did not use it.

"The Honda bike and a Citroen car then drove off in the direction of the Burntwood Bypass."

Anyone with information is asked to call 0300 123 4455, quoting incident number 320 of July 20.

Swallow on patrol in war-torn Afghanistan

AN RAF sergeant from Burntwood swapped her desk job for the front line in Afghanistan's trouble torn Helmand Province.

It is the first time that 42-year-old Sgt Karen Swallow had been deployed on a ground operation during 25 years of military duty. She has just spent a week with J Company, 42 Commando clearing around three miles of the main road between Loy Mandeh Kalay and Lashkar Gah of Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs).

The team removed a dozen of the deadly homemade roadside bombs that have been blamed for more than 60 per cent of coalition casualties during the present conflict.

Sgt Swallow, who had to carry water, rations and 40kg of kit during the seven-day operation, had spent four months completing arduous infantry training and being put through a rigorous fitness regime after volunteering to switch her desk job at RAF Leeming in Yorkshire for a posting on the front line in Afghanistan. She said: "This is what I have been itching to do. Putting all of the skills, drills and training into practice is a great feeling. Being the only female is not a problem. You do not get treated any differently and muck in with all the guys.

"The only trouble comes when we have to cross ditches because being petite I need to take a bit more of a run up. I am looking forward to heading out again and will be first to volunteer for the next operation."

Routine

Sgt Swallow, who has been serving with the Military Stabilisation Support Team (MSST) in Helmand Province, was also involved in creating a new maternity unit built under the scheme in Gereshk before setting out on her first patrol.

She said: "It was really rewarding. We cleared 12 IEDs in total which means the local people can once again use the route into the city to access schools, clinics and bazaars.

"Every day we made a little bit of progress and I was able to speak to people and identify opportunities for future infrastructure development in the area." Sergeant Major Andy Place, from J Company, 42 Commando, said: "This was the first time we have worked with Karen. She got on well and was delicate and diplomatic when dealing with the locals."

Sgt Swallow, who has served in Bosnia, the Falklands, Kuwait, Iraq and Northern Ireland, has now returned to join the MSST team stationed at Camp Price,near Gereshk.

Parents Graham and Ann Swinney live in Chase Terrace and her 16-year-old nephew Jordan has been sending her emails every day during the tour of duty in Afghanistan.

Sgt Swallow celebrated 25 years in the RAF after volunteering to work for the MSST in Afghanistan. Her job mainly involves dealing with the Afghan people.

She identifies areas where funding from MSST could help improve their lives, then organises the funding and manages the project. She also arranges compensation for Afghan farmers whose crops or land may have been unintentionally damaged by a military operation

Traders' joy at free Christmas parking

CANNOCK'S town centre boss has welcomed the council's decision to offer free parking for two days leading up to Christmas.

Cannock Chase Council has agreed to sacrifice around £13,000 in takings to help town centre traders.The authority is offering free all-day parking on December 17 and 24.

Cannock Shopping Centre manager Natal Chapman said the news would delight retail managers across the town. "It's very encouraging they're listening," she said.

Retailers and councillors hope the move will discourage people from travelling to "out-of- town" locations to do their Christmas shopping. "

And deputy council leader Janos Toth, agreed, saying the plan would stop shoppers from going to other places such as Wolverhampton, Lichfield and Telford.

He said: "I think we need to encourage shoppers to come in to the town centre and not go to other areas outside of Cannock Chase District Council's area."

Footfall

A pre-meeting report by head of environmental services Kevin Lawlor advised that suspending charges on December 17 and 24 would potentially increase footfall figures in the town centres before warning that two Saturdays' free parking would lead to a loss of about £13,000, or £26,000 for all four days.

The minimum charge option would cost taxpayers £4,700 for the two Saturdays or £9,400 for four.

A minimum charge between December 1 and 24 would have led to an estimated loss of £23,000.

Free parking will also be offered in Rugeley town centre on both dates following a request from the traders' association.

Bethany Hall, left, aged nine, and Beth Jones, 11 in the maize maze at Lower Drayton Farm, Penkridge

Get lost in the maize

YOUNG explorers can get lost in the maze at a Penkridge farm from tomorrow (Friday).

The maize maze, at Lower Drayton Farm, off the A449 is set on a 600-acre beef and arable farm, the maze is a labyrinth of pathways.

The challenge for a family is to complete the maize maze by scaling the hay mountain and crawling through the molehill.

There is also the chance to take a leisurely stroll around the farm's woodland walk. The maze will be open 11am-5pm, Thursdays to Sundays, until late September.

Admission costs £5.50 for adults, £4.50 for children but under-fours can go for free.

Opener for new pitch

THE first game will be played on a £40,000 pitch at Burntwood Leisure Centre on Saturday (July 30).

Chasetown Academy will take on Burton Albion Academy in a friendly at the High Street centre. Kick off is at 11am.

The pitch has been funded by developers, Staffordshire Local Community Fund and Lichfield District Council.

Centre manager Paul Watson said: "Saturday's friendly should be a good curtain-raiser for the new season."

Meeting of REA branch

Family's out to crack the code

A FAMILY team of mechanics from Burntwood have entered a brand new television show in a bid to win £5,000.

CM Conscripts consists of Derek Danby, aged 59, his brother Warren, 54, and his sons Chris, 28, and team captain Craig, 26.

Sky1's new show, Safebreakers, involves using mechanical and tactical mind power to solve problems and crack open a safe, which contains a prize of £5,000. Mr Danby said: "It was a lot of fun. There were some ups and downs, but overall we had a thoroughly good day."

The team have been around the robot building circuit for years and were considering applying for Scrapheap Challenge until Craig noticed the ad for Safebreakers.

Canisters

On the show, the team had two days to convert a car into a vehicle that is capable of putting out fires, and then use it to collect canisters containing the code to crack the safe.

Derek is a qualified tool maker, while Warren is a former mechanic. Craig is a qualified electrician and Chris, despite being an accountant, is a dab hand at mechanics.

Mr Danby added: "If everyone who watches it enjoys it as much as we did, then it will do well."

The team appears on the first episode of Safebreakers on August 15 on Sky 1.

Neighbour complaints 'bang out of order'

Court ban leaves drummer rocking

Jack Smith, aged eight with his drum kit

A RUGELEY boy was thrilled when his parents bought him a brand new drum kit for his eighth birthday. However Jack Smith's delight was short-lived when a court banned him from playing it.

The youngster's noisy late-night practice sessions rattled the family's next door neighbours who complained to the council and the police.

Now Jack, of Allen Birt Walk, has been barred from picking up his drumsticks, between 10pm and 9am, after his father Jason was hit with a court restraining order.

His mother Sam Smith said: "It's bang out of order. He's wanted a drum kit ever since seeing that young lad Kieran Gaffney play drums on Britain's Got Talent a couple of years ago.

Habits

"How's Jack going to improve if he's not allowed to practise?

The Churchfield Primary schoolboy's drumming led to complaints from the Taylors next door.

Jayne Taylor, who provides respite care for disabled youngsters, said the peace of their quiet cul-de-sac was shattered by the Smiths' musical habits.

The ban prevents Jack and anyone else in the family from playing the drums or loud music between the hours of 10pm and 9am. Lorry driver Mr Smith, 40, was ordered to pay £200 in fine and costs.

But Mrs Smith said:"Even though he's now got his own drum kit, he can only play on the school set during band practice on a Monday night. It's ridiculous."

AROUND THE CLUBS

thechronicle

Group is given a tour of city's Darwin House

LICHFIELD ROTARY CLUB

A GROUP representing Lichfield Rotary Club made a consultative visit to Lichfield's Erasmus Darwin House.

The visit arose from Lichfield Rotary Club's commitment to helping to support local heritage and history initiatives, as a contribution to boosting the local tourist economy.

The party was taken on a guided tour of the house and gardens by curator Alison Wallis, during which they examined the recently refurbished parlour and study, and then were then invited to explore and comment on the existing Inventions Room, which celebrates Erasmus Darwin's experimental successes.

Given the cross-section of educationalists and business people present, a very constructive discussion followed, which it is hoped will contribute to this important museum's future planning.

CANNOCK SOROPTIMISTS

Children in townships join band of brothers

The Marching Band in a township near Cape Town

TRISH Smith, a member of SI Cannock & District, spends part of each year in her home in South Africa where she is very involved with helping women and children in the townships.

Soroptimists support the work she does by raising funds for women to be trained as nurses, for buildings to be renovated and equipment provided at so that crèches can operate and for her latest project – a Marching Band. Trish keeps in touch with the club, updating members on progress.

She recently returned to Cannock and at the last club' meeting showed films and photos of children she'd been involved with in the last 12 months.

Trish started up the Marching Band with the help of individuals and groups – including SI Cannock & District – and after 12 months it is flourishing. They wear a uniform, play kazoos, have a dance troupe and recently led the procession through the local villages.

The children meet weekly and the Band is so important to them – one boy walks a 10-mile round trip to attend; another child attended the day after her mother had died, but she needed to be with her friends at Band practice.

Soroptimist members were moved to think that this activity is so successful and is providing these children with exactly what they need in their lives – support, love and security.

Ladies able to indulge in some retail therapy

HAYES GREEN WI

PRESIDENT Sandy Hobbs opened the July meeting with a greeting to everyone present and Jerusalem was sung as usual.

Secretary Elaine Smith read the minutes of the June meeting and treasurer Rosemary Larkin gave the financial report.

The Ascot Ladies' Day at Moor Hall on June 16 was a great success as in previous years and was thoroughly enjoyed by all the members in attendance.

The day trip to Bridgemere Gardens and Dagfields was also very interesting. With so many shops the ladies were able to indulge in some real retail therapy.

The group's picnic on the Chase has become an annual event and this year, they were again lucky to have good weather, with many people also enjoying the lovely surroundings.

The theme this year was "Country and Western" with Maureen Hughes as the star of the afternoon.

On this July evening, there was a fashion show, presented by Tom Speake. Ladies could "try before buying " and there was a variety of items on offer.

Forthcoming events include a visit to the Lichfield Heritage Centre, afternoon tea at Netherstowe House, Lichfield,and a skittles evening at Hednesford.

President Sandy was wished a very happy forthcoming "special "birthday, with a beautiful cake made by Elaine, shared by everyone

Moira gave an account of her day at the WI AGM in Liverpool, which will also be distributed to the other members of the Heathside group.

The raffle was won by Rosemary.

The monthly luncheon was taking place on July 20 at the Winding Wheel, Heath Hayes. Mrs. Hobbs closed the meeting and wished everyone a safe journey home.

Staff celebrate first anniversary

STAFF at a Hednesford shop have been celebrating the store's first anniversary.

The International Aid Trust Charity Shop is now a year old and to mark the occasion, staff held an open day offering a sale on goods and a range of refreshments.

Area co-ordinator for the International Aid Trust Alison Cardy said: "It's an opportunity to celebrate the hard work of the manager Pat O'Gara and the long-term staff." The new shop, in Market Street, replaced the previous store on the other side of the road giving staff more room. The shop receives goods from members of the public and uses money raised to spend on a wide range of projects.

Mrs Cardy said: "This enabled us to better serve the local community and accommodate more customers. Also, being conscious of the welfare of the staff, we now have a sorting area for aid and food being sent abroad."

A four-year jail term for HIV lover, 44

Nkosinathi Mabanda

A FORMER Cannock man who infected his lover with the HIV virus has been jailed for four years.

Nkosinathi Mabanda's victim branded him 'scum' and said he should have been locked up for life.

Mabanda admitted a charge of inflicting grievous bodily harm. The 44-year-old, formerly of Cannock but now living in Tixall Road, Stafford, will serve an extra 12 months on parole after his release and be considered for deportation by the secretary of state.

He was also handed an Anti-Social Behaviour Order prohibiting him from engaging in sexual activity with any person without first disclosing he has HIV.

His victim, who is from Walsall but cannot be named for legal reasons, said her life had been changed forever. "He should have been given life because that's the sentence he has given to me," she said. "He's just scum. I hope he's deported because I hate him. I'm on medication now for the rest of my life."

Wolverhampton Crown Court was told this week that Mabanda tested positive for HIV in 2004, shortly after moving to the UK from Zimbabwe with his wife. They later separated.

Mr David Swinnerton, prosecuting, said he had fathered four children by women other than his wife and admitted having sex with nine woman while in the UK – including five without protection. He said: "In regard to seven of them he accepts he had not told them of his HIV status."

The court heard his relationship with the victim started after they met at a Black Country betting shop but it was years later when she discovered he had HIV.

It came after she found romantic text messages on his mobile phone from a mystery woman – later finding it was his secret fiancee who advised her to get tested for HIV.

Jungle mural brightens up the classroom

Pupils and staff with the mural designed by a parent and created during a painting day at Etching Hill Primary School

PUPILS in Rugeley got jungle fever as they painted an animal- themed mural.

The mural has brightened up the outside area for the Early Years children at Etching Hill Primary in Penk Drive North.

The theme was chosen by the children, and the mural was designed and drawn by parent Lisa Inns.

Once the design was in place, children, parents and staff donned their overalls and picked up their paintbrushes to colour the artwork. The paint was donated by Cannock Gates.

It took a number of weekends to complete, and some Year 6 children also dedicated their break times to it.

The jungle scene features a giraffe, a hippo, a leopard, a crocodile, an elephant, a snake and a monkey.

Head Marie Smith said: "Everyone involved enjoyed doing it and it really has brightened up the outside learning area."

Town traders begin festive countdown

TRADERS in Rugeley have begun the countdown to Christmas early by making plans for this year's festivities with five months to go.

Three Christmas trees will be put up in the town centre, with two positioned on the Eaton Lodge Island and in Market Square, with the third going to a newly established holding point in Brook Square.

The trees should start going up in the town by the fourth week in November ready for the build-up to the start of the festive party season.

The traders also have plans for a Tree of Light where residents can dedicate a light to a lost loved one. The money raised from the public paying for a spot will go towards funding the event. Traders also hope to get as many churches from the town involved with the festive celebrations.

Angi Cooney, of the Rugeley Traders group, said: "We are going to invite all of the local churches to hold a carol concert during December for everyone to attend.

Stalls

"We will need to discuss this in more detail with them but if you belong to a church then ask them to get in touch.

"We want the local primary schools to get involved and maybe hold their own carol singing in the town during December."

Street entertainers will also be invited, while a late night shopping event is being planned for Friday, December 2 with market stalls set to run from the top of Upper Brook Street to Brook Square.

Angi added: "The R factor choir will be asked to sing, we will invite various singing groups to perform during the night and street entertainment will be invited into the town.

"Santa and Mrs Santa will be making an appearance, hopefully on a sleigh with reindeer, and be positioned in Brook Square.

"The children will be given the chance to go and see him, at no charge. The traders will donate the sweets for the children."

To get involved with the organising of the Christmas build-up, contact Angi Cooney on 07866 610894.

Group helps to drive out anti-social antics

Precinct is now a safer place to shop

SHOP owners in Rugeley have helped to reduce anti-social behaviour and encouraged youngsters to clean up their acts.

Twelve shops formed the Fernwood Shops and Residents Association. They got together to tackle the problem of youths congregating in the area, dropping litter and deterring customers from visiting the shopping parade in Green Lane.

The group has now turned the area around with the number of of anti social incidents reported to the police being reduced, creating a safer area for people to shop.

One of the main problems in the area was litter, but the association organised daily cleaning contract which proved an overnight success.

Secretary Gary Bennett, owner of Samsar Curiosity Shop, said: "Youths still congregate, but it's much tidier now – it's certainly had an effect on their behaviour."

Appalling

The group formed in March, and was initially driven by County Councillor Geoff Martin and local police officer Paul Bradbury.

Councillor Martin said: "It was in an appalling mess, it was untidy and people didn't want to go down there anymore.

"But now it's looking a lot better. It's a really big improvement and it's very good news for Rugeley."

Pc Bradbury said: "It's been an unbelievable transformation. The estate is a much safer place and people feel a lot happier about visiting the shops in the early evening."

Councillor Martin awarded the association £300 to go towards a new sign to publicise the area, which has been placed at the entrance to the precinct's car park.

Firm switched on to energy saving boost

A RUGELEY company is celebrating after one of the largest factory roof solar pv electricity projects in the UK was switched on two weeks ahead of schedule – allowing thousands of pounds worth of extra savings on power.

A1 Solar Solutions installed 1,700 solar panels, in just six weeks, producing the equivalent power needed for 47 homes.

During the job, on a warehouse roof in Great Barr, seven A1 Solar Solutions staff used 7,000 metres of cable and 45,000 bolts to fix roof mountings.

They also installed several huge Fronius CL inverters to convert the DC power into AC, along with associated control equipment. And the whole system worked as soon as it was switched on, now generating 303 kWP instantly, in optimum conditions, saving client Selecta Systems an estimated £15,500 a month – a third of its current electricity bill.

The system generates 221,974 kWh per year and 5.53 MW of electricity over 25 years. An average house uses 4,800 kWh per year, which means the Selecta system equals the annual requirement of 47 homes.

A1 Solar Solutions technical director, Ian Webb, said: "Our client, a profile extrusion company, is now enjoying huge savings on its electricity bill, while earning money from the national grid.Detailed planning was the key to getting this right first time."

Company director Paul Grinsell said: "This is one of the largest roof installations undertaken in this country.

"When you can save some £15,500 on a monthly bill, it can make a huge difference."

Service to dedicate images of Apostles

THE Archbishop of Birmingham visited a Rugeley church to bless and dedicate images of the Two Apostles.

The Parish of St Joseph and St Etheldreda, in Lichfield Street, welcomed the Archbishop of Birmingham, Bernard Longley, to Holy Mass.

The Archbishop blessed and dedicated images of the Two Apostles etched in glass and set in the entrance doors to the church.

Parish Priest Father Peter Stonier said: "The etchings were given by Mrs Margaret Rowe and her family in memory of Deacon James Tully Rowe who died suddenly in 2009.

Cherished

"He had been a deacon in the parish for only two years but his ministry was wide-ranging and cherished.

"He was deeply loved and the church was full for the celebration.

"The artist who made the panels is Anita Pate from Scotland and her work can also be seen in Cannock and Stafford hospital chapels.

"It was good that she could be present."

Recycle firm given digester plant deal

A RECYCLING firm has been handed a contract to work with the owners of Cannock's giant new 'digester' plant.

4Recycling Ltd, part of the 4R Group, has been awarded a three-year deal by Biffa to recycle waste at the state-of-the-art facility at the Poplars landfill site.

Biffa unveiled the country's first super anaerobic digestion plant in June. The £24m food digestion plant is the UK's biggest and will process up to 120,000 tons of waste a year. Biffa hopes similar plants will be built across the country to convert waste food scraps into electricity.

4R group managing director Mike Holt said: "We are pleased to be supporting Biffa on this important contract."

Pub chain Wetherspoons has begun sending food scraps from some of its pubs to the site. Segregated food waste from supermarkets, food and drink manufacturers, hotels, restaurants, caterers and homes is also delivered there.

This is fed into the digester to transform 120,000 tons of scraps into six megawatts of power which provide enough to power 6,000 homes, 24 hours a day.

Girls arrange walk for cancer charity

TWO Penkridge schoolgirls have raised hundreds of pounds by organising a charity walk.

Rebecca Fisher, aged 12, and 13-year-old Mollie McQuade, decided to organise a walk, which has raised between £300 and £400, after Rebecca's father, Mike Fisher, lost his leg to cancer.

She said: "Last September my dad was diagnosed with cancer in his leg and, although he survived, his leg had to be amputated.

"I wanted to do the Race for Life but then me and my friends got together and decided to run our own. My mum and me organised a date and my friends all agreed to help.

"I know I have been incredibly lucky with all this and my dad could have so easily lost his life, instead of his leg. He received a second chance in life."

The six-mile walk took in canal walks and country lanes around Penkridge, Acton Trussell and Dunston with the money going to the girls' chosen cancer charity.

This glass act is difficult to beat

DESPITE the shrinking economy, one local company has grown to become one of the leading manufacturers of uPVC windows, doors and conservatories in the West Midlands.

EnergySeal, based in Planetary Road, Wednesfield, has a 20 strong workforce, all of whom strive to be the very best in the industry in all areas.

This dedication to quality begins with excellent manufacturing of their window system, through to excellent customer service.

Manufacturing – Foreman Clive Hipkiss pictured crafting a window unit for EnergySeal of Wednesfield

Family-run

The company is a family-run business with two brothers David and Richard Carter, at the helm.

Director of sales, David, says: "We aim to give our customers the very best service the industry can offer.

"Through being involved directly with sales, we can develop a special relationship with customers the second their phone rings.

"Then, when our customers become confident they are buying their windows, doors or conservatories off the right company, we get the project underway.

"Starting with a free technical survey of the work being carried out, we then project-manage everything from that point on.

"In our conservatories range we have many different options for our customers.

"We provide the finished article, starting with the base, brickwork, erecting the uPVC frames and roof, right down to fitting electrics, tiling the floor and fitting vertical blinds. In our showroom, we have six full-sized conservatories fully-fitted with fixtures and fittings to show our customers exactly what they're buying.

"EnergySeal is also looking to create more jobs in the local area."

Richard, trade director, adds; "When we started manufacturing, we had three employees.

"Three years on we now employ 10 fabricators, two fitting teams and six office staff.

"We are always looking to expand our business so we can create new jobs for local people. Because we offer such an excellent service, most of our work comes from recommendations so this gives us the opportunity to grow. We also supply to the trade industry.

"If you are interested in buying any of our extensive range of windows, doors or conservatories, call 01902 866000 and one of our friendly advisers will be happy to help with your enquiry. Alternatively, pop into the showroom for a free no obligation quote."

Director of sales, David Carter, is always happy to discuss available options with customers

Decision on parking shake-up is delayed

COUNCILLORS have decided to delay plans to axe five-minute waiting times for delivery drivers in Hednesford.

Town traders fear a major shake-up of the parking restrictions could hamper crucial stock deliveries.

Under controversial proposals, unveiled by Staffordshire County Council's parking board, the five-minute unloading time given to delivery drivers would be scrapped. However, the council has put a stop on the plans until at least another meeting is held on October 11.

Council officers have consulted residents and businesses in the town centre about the plans, which would affect Anglesey Street and Eskrett Street.

Eight out of 10 residents who responded to the consultation supported the idea, but shopkeepers are worried it may have a damaging impact on their business.

The proposal is to alter the current "no waiting at any time" parking restriction on the north side of Anglesey Street where it meets Market Street.

The intention is to remove the five-minutes grace given to delivery drivers offloading stock for local traders which, along with a line of taxis on the opposite side of the road, causes a build-up of traffic.

The council wants to discourage shoppers from parking on the double yellow lines while they visit the Co-Op store.

Proposal

The Co-Op has ample parking but a kiosk selling newspapers and cigarettes at the front of the store, adjacent to Anglesey Street, attracts motorists who park there illegally.

One proposal being considered is to make Anglesey Street one-way.

Chirene Plant, owner of Hednesford Kitchens Limited, which sits on the corner of Anglesey Street and Market Street, says the changes will leave her business "stuffed".

She says she is clueless as to how delivery drivers are going to drop off or collect heavy cookers and kitchen equipment.

The 46-year-old said the solution to the problems was to remove the disabled parking bays or move the taxi rank.

£50m project is shaping up

The bingo hall at Hednesford Gateway regeneration project is under construction

A £50 million new look for Hednesford town centre is shaping up to be completed by Christmas next year.

The first phase of the Hednesford Gateway development is already well under way.

Cannock Chase Council's town centre regeneration leader, Councillor Diane Todd, was given a guided tour of the new development by Mark Watkins, a senior surveyor for developers St. Modwen.

He revealed that construction work, which began in April, is progressing on target.

People are already able to use the new free car park outside the upcoming Hednesford Bingo Club and the small retail outlets facing Rugeley Road. The new Reserve Forces and Cadets Association (RFCA) building, which will sit between a Tesco store and Hednesford Park is beginning to take shape.

Mr Watkins said the handover of the cadet and bingo properties would be this autumn, with many retailers expressing an interest in the Rugeley Road facing units.

Tesco should be fully operational in time for next year's build-up to Christmas. Demolition works to prepare for the new retail units on Market Street has also begun.

Four are injured in collisions

FOUR people including a pensioner were injured in two separate road crashes in Cannock on Tuesday.

Firefighters rescued a 65-year-old woman trapped in a blue Mercedes after it collided head-on with a maroon Ford Fiesta at the junction of Wolverhampton Road and Longford Road.

The woman was taken to Stafford Hospital suffering neck pain following the crash just before 7.10pm. Two men in the Fiesta, both in their 20s, were taken to Walsall Manor Hospital.

Just after11am, a man in his 20s suffered serious head, arm, leg and abdomen injuries after being thrown from his motorbike in a crash with a Peugeot 206.

The accident, at the junction of St John's Road and Avon Road, near Asda. He was flown by Air Ambulance to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham.

Sold out signs go up on Hoard tour

ALL TICKETS to see the Staffordshire Hoard at Lichfield Cathedral have been snapped up – four days before the exhibition opens.

It follows a huge demand to experience the Staffordshire Hoard on Tour exhibition which opens at the cathedral on Saturday (July 30).

On Tuesday morning, just 212 of the total 14,350 exhibition and tour tickets remained but by the afternoon the 'sold out' signs had gone up at the box office. Visitors who have been unable to secure tickets can still go along to enjoy a variety of events.

The exhibition, which runs until August 21, attracted 20,000 visitors to the Shire Hall in Stafford on the first phase of its summer tour.

Capacity

Canon Pete Wilcox, Chancellor of Lichfield Cathedral, said: "Obviously it is incredible that the Lichfield leg of the tour is at full capacity and that over 14,000 visitors will be coming to the cathedral this summer.

"We are however keen to avoid any disappointment by announcing that the tour is at full capacity and speculative tickets will not be available. The response has made it clear how very important the Mercian Trail is to the region and the cathedral is proud to be involved with the tour."

The Bookshop at 9, The Close, will be open daily throughout the exhibition and a selection of Hoard souvenirs will be available.

Free performances from local musicians will take place at 1pm for 35 minutes.

The Hoard On Tour will move on to Tamworth Castle from August 27.

Raid attempt

DAMAGE estimated at £800 was caused in an attempted burglary at Barry's News in Cannock Road, Burntwood. The raiders forced the back door at 1am on Monday and were unable to get through a second door into the newsagents. The alarm was set off and the raiders fled empty handed.

Tree planting tribute to tragic schoolboy

STAFF and pupils at a Cannock school have installed a long-lasting memorial to a Hednesford teenager who lost his battle with muscular dystrophy earlier this year.

Michael Pearse died in Stafford Hospital on April 10, aged just 18. Norton Canes High School, where Michael was a sixth former, has planted a tree as a tribute.

A plaque has been installed alongside the tree. It reads: "This plaque was planted in memory of Michael Pearse, 30.3.93 – 10.4.11, a pupil of Norton Canes High School."

At the age of 16, Michael, of Hill Street, was given an £8,500 powered wheelchair which gave him a "new lease of life".

Colourful creation in primary school garden

BUDDING young gardeners at a Cannock school got their green fingers dirty, transforming a patch of grass into beds of colourful blooms.

Gorsemoor Primary School pupils dug deep for the six-month project, working alongside landscape artist Mel Brown to create an outdoor classroom.

Raised beds enclosed by tidy timber beams, benches and fencing have been installed at the school in a project supported by Cannock Chase Council.

Councillor Christine Mitchell, culture and sport leader, said: "We've discovered some real green fingers. It has been a real team effort, and everyone has played their part.

"The project will hopefully inspire other schools and venues to change a space, which truly makes a difference to those who get involved."

Councillor Christine Mitchell and Cannock Chase District Council chairman Councillor John Beddows with Gorsemoor Primary pupils in their new sensory garden

Councillors defend £2,000 dance DVD

COUNCILLORS in Cannock have hit back at claims from the Taxpayers' Alliance that a free dance DVD was a waste of money.

The council has produced the DVD to tackle obesity and the town's worrying number of premature deaths.

Life expectancy in the district is shorter than the average for England in eight out of the 15 wards due to smoking and obesity. The DVD was labelled a silly waste of money by Taxpayers' Alliance spokesman John O'Connell who said children should already be encouraged to undertake physical exercise.

Mr O'Connell said the authority should "get its priorities in order" and not burden the taxpayer. The DVD cost £2,000 to put together and was partly funded by the Cannock Chase Commissioning Consortium and South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust.

Cannock East councillor Muriel Davis, who is the council's heath and wellbeing portfolio leader, has defended the initiative and said it is a good way to get people 'moving'.

Frightening

She said: "It's got to be a good thing, the figures for our area are quite frightening. I'm sorry but I think it's worth the money."

Fellow Cannock East councillor Christine Mitchell said anything that gets people moving is a good thing and the DVD would appeal to people who are put off by the idea of going to dance classes.

In April, the council discussed ways to tackle the town's worrying premature deaths. Cannock Chase has the highest mortality rate in Staffordshire, with the county's rate itself higher than England's average.

On the DVD there are step-by-step beginners' routines including a disco routine from Stars Academy, a line-dancing routine from Danceaway Dance Academy, a Street Dance routine from Sundance School of Dance and a Zumba routine.

The DVD was filmed at local dance classes in the district.

It includes interviews with some of the people who attend the classes and the instructors themselves.

Group's latest work is Essential viewing

ESSENTIAL Productions return to the Cannock Prince of Wales with a brand new play in September.

The company's first ever production – Masquerade – debuted at the Church Street theatre last year and the group returns with The Angel of Adulation for a three-night run.

The play tells the story of Marcus Monette, who was a star of the stage, loved by many. His dark and tragic life provided such interesting material the resident writer at the Jenny Royal Theatre, Malcolm Martin, writes a production all about Marcus who was killed on stage during a production 40 years earlier.

As rehearsals take place peculiar happenings begin to occur – scenery falling down, cast and crew having multiple nosebleeds and a man, the ghost of Marcus, appearing in the rafters.

The Angel of Adulation runs from September 15-17 and tickets are £12.50 or £10 for concessions.

To book call the box office on 01543 578762.

Society on lookout for musical disciples

A CANNOCK choral society is on the hunt for musical disciples for its next performance.

Chadsmoor Choral Society is looking for new voices to take part in its musical extravaganza Jesus Christ Superstar, at the Prince of Wales Centre in November.

Male voices are particularly needed as the cast requires 12 disciples among other parts. This is a rare opportunity for the society to stage the show in a theatre, as most amateur companies are only licensed to perform it in a church or school.

The society will take to the stage from Wednesday, November 9 to Saturday, November 12. Rehearsals have just started, so newcomers will have plenty of time to learn the music and choreography. They are every Wednesday at 7.30pm at Chadsmoor Methodist Church hall, Cannock Road, Chadsmoor.

For information, call 07736 699857 or follow the society on Facebook.

Free drama workshops

FOUR free drama workshops are on offer to youngsters in Lichfield through August.

Class Act Drama Centre will run the classes, which are free due to the organisation recently receiving substantial arts funding.

The classes will be led by professional actors and directors and last for 90 minutes each.

They take place at The Emmanuel Christian Centre, in Netherstowe, every Tuesday evening in August from 6-7.30pm.

Places are subject to availability and cannot be offered to existing or former Class Act Drama Centre members.

To book email classactdrama@aol.com or call 0121 244 3214 by July 31.

Tribute at the double to Canadian rocker

FANS of Bryan Adams are in for a treat at a Hednesford pub this weekend.

The Canadian rocker will be the subject of two separate tributes at The Tackeroo, in Bracken Close, Hednesford.

Tomorrow night (Friday) Four Tribute takes to the stage, offering fans four for the price of one as he performs hits by Adams, Elton John, Tom Jones and Robbie Williams.

The following night it's the turn of The Adams Jovi Experience to get the crowd going with their take on the hits of both Bryan Adams and Bon Jovi.

Tickets for both gigs are £5 and they kick off at 9pm. Call 01543 423124.

Legend visits two of region's theatres

Golf fans can get down with Alliss

The 'Voice of Golf' Peter Alliss

GOLF legend Peter Alliss returns to the Lichfield Garrick in September following a sell-out performance last year. 'The Voice of Golf' will also be at the Prince of Wales Centre in Cannock the following month.

The BBC commentator will recall stories and anecdotes from his 50 years in the sport, which included a hugely successful playing career.

Alliss, the son of successful golfer Percy, was one of the finest golfers of his generation, winning 21 professional tournaments between 1954 and 1969.

This included three British PGA championships and several Ryder Cup appearances, representing Great Britain and Ireland.

By the time he retired from the sport aged just 39 Alliss was already well known as a television personality having made his broadcasting debut in 1961.

Full-time

From 1969 onwards he became a full-time commentator and in 1978 was named chief commentator at the BBC following the death of co-host Henry Longhurst.

His voice is now one of the most recognisable in British broadcasting and at the age of 80 he is still going strong, having commentated on the recent Open Championship, won by Darren Clarke.

During his one-man show at the Garrick Allis will also open the floor to a question and answer session.

Tickets for his show, which takes place on Tuesday September 20, cost £20. Book online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or call the box office on 01543 412121.

The Cannock show is on Saturday, October 22 at 7.30pm with tickets priced at £18.

Call the box office on Church Street on 01543 578762.

Comedian Jim Davidson – Garrick date in September

September Garrick date for funny Jim

CONTROVERSIAL comic Jim Davidson makes an appearance at the Lichfield Garrick in September.

Known for his risqué material, Davidson has been a comedian since the 1970s when he became a regular on TV screens.

The Jim Davidson Show ran for five series and won Davidson the accolade of funniest man on television from the TV Times.

In 1991 he began presenting Big Break with John Virgo, a programme which ran for 11 years.

But Davidson is perhaps best known for his eight-year tenure as host of The Generation Game, from 1994 to 2002.

In recent years Davidson appeared in the third series of Hell's Kitchen in the UK and in May 2008 he was on the BBCs Comedy Map of Britain.

His September 22 night at the Garrick is for over-18s only and tickets are £20. Call 01543 412121 to book or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

The top property guide for Cannock, Penkridge, Heath Hayes Great Wyrley, Rugeley, Hednesford, Burntwood and Lichfield

Two homes set in one location

The main house situated at 125 Walsall Road, Norton Canes, is a well-presented four-bedroomed home

THIS property in Norton Canes has been considerably improved and has the added benefit of a detached annex bungalow.

Occupying well-stocked gardens and convenient for facilities at the village centre, the property at 125 Walsall Road offers much potential.

On the ground floor of the main house is an enclosed porch with uPVC double-glazed windows and access door to the reception hall.

Off there is an open plan L-shaped lounge and dining area with feature fire surround having natural flame gas fire, black granite hearth and inset, coved ceiling, wood veneer laminate floor, television aerial point, double radiator, UPVC double glazed window and two wall light points.

The fitted kitchen.breakfast area leads to an L-Shaped dining area incorporating: base units, laminate working surfaces, wall cupboards, glazed display cabinets, concealed lighting, electric eye-level double oven, electric hob, oven hood, integrated fridge and freezer, wall light point, double radiator, plumbing for automatic washing machine, vent for tumble dryer, two uPVC double glazed windows and side access door, 'Baxi' gas fired condensing central heating unit, wood veneer floor to breakfast area and marble tiled floor to kitchen area, power points and uPVC double glazed French windows and side double glazed windows leading to conservatory

There is a uPVC double glazed conservatory and a study.

Bedroom one has en en suite, built-in wardrobe and double radiator.

The fully-tiled bathroom has a white suite, while the detached annex bungalow features an L-shaped lounge/kitchen area, a bedroom and a fully-tiled shower room.

Outside, there are well-stocked gardens which form an attractive feature and incorporate numerous ornamental trees and shrubs, lawns, slate chipping areas, carp pool with filters, riven paved terrace and pathways, gated side drive, forecourt is textured concrete finish providing off road parking and the rear garden is enclosed with close board fencing. There are electric lights and cold water tap located to the outside of the main building. There is space for erection of garage subject to planning permission being obtained. There is also a timber garden store.

For further information call the agent Boot & Son on 01543 505454 or visit www.bootandson.co.uk

The kitchen at the useful annex is modern and stylish

Traditional three-bedroomed home, priced around £129,000

Number 67 Probert Road, situated in the Oxley area of Wolverhampton

A TRADITIONAL three bedroomed home set in a popular area north of Wolverhampton has come onto the market for offers in the region of £129,000.

Number 67 Probert Road in Oxley offers well-presented spacious accommodation, majority uPVC double glazing, radiator central heating, a rear garden, garage and off-road parking. Rees Page estate agents are managing the sale and recommend internal viewing of this house, which has no upward chain.

Entry is via an arched porchway with a part leaded door into a reception hall, which has an understairs cupboard.

The lounge faces the front while the separate dining room has been extended and features an electric fire and surround and double doors to a sun room.

The kitchen has a range of wall and base units, rolled-edge worksurfaces, sink, drainer and mixer tap, electric cooker point and plumbing for a washing machine. There are three bedrooms leading off the landing. The main bedroom includes a range of built in wardrobes and storage to one wall.

Lobby

The second bedroom includes built in wardrobes and a dressing table to one wall while there's also a third bedroom and a part-tiled bathroom, which has a pedestal wash basin, panel with shower over and screen and WC.

Outside, the house is set back from the road behind a hedged foregarden with a small lawn and flowerbed and gated driveway leading to a garage with double doors and a rear lobby area containing a sink and drainer, boiler and door to the kitchen.

To the rear is a "delightful and well established" private garden stocked with a variety of shrubs, trees and plants and featuring an ornamental pond, lawn, patio and greenhouse. To arrange a viewing, call 01902 577775.

Gain satisfaction from growing your own veg

Crisp carrots are fabulous picked fresh from the garden

SUMMER solstice may have been and gone, but it's still not too late to take inspiration from the latest edible flower show gardens and grow your own. As Nigel Bishop, Horticultural Advisor to the Shrewsbury Flower Show suggests, choosing the right variety is key.

A surprisingly wide range of vegetables are quick to grow and will thrive if planted at this time of year. With fast growing varieties you will soon be rewarded for the fruits of your labour – some go from seed to harvest within weeks.

Salad leaves

Salad leaves will grow in relatively small containers and are quick and easy to grow. Lettuce mixtures grow well until late summer and one seed packet will produce a bumper crop. They have a short harvest window of around a week, so don't plant too many at a time. Loose Leaf Lettuce is the fastest growing. Try 'Salad Bowl' or 'Green Ice', which are popular with kitchen gardeners.

Chinese Cabbage

Also called Chinese leaves, Chinese cabbage has crisp, pale leaves and a mild, sweet flavour when cooked. They can be ready to harvest in one to two months so are worth sowing at this time of year for a crop of cabbage leaves before the winter sets in.

Chinese cabbages can be cooked like cabbage, stir-fried or eaten raw in salads. Try the 'Early Jade Pagoda' variety, which is late maturing.

Radishes

One of the fastest and easiest crops to grow, radishes are ideal for novices. They can be ready to pick in as little as three weeks, although four to six weeks is more usual.

Radishes are a very tolerant crop and grow well in containers, as long as there is sufficient water.

Once fully grown they quickly become woody so it's best to sow small amounts on a weekly basis for a continuous supply. Try the 'French Breakfast' variety for a radish crop in just three weeks.

Carrots

Carrots are one of the best vegetables to pick fresh from your garden.

Fast maturing varieties can be ready in 50 days and you can sow them directly into the ground as late as August.

For great texture and flavour try the Carrot Nantes.

This variety is shorter than a main crop carrot and cylindrical rather than tapered but tastes great.

Cress

If you are sowing seeds with children for the first time, then cress is a great place to start.

The seed is extremely quick and easy to germinate – once sown you will see the results within a week or two.

For the best results, simply sprinkle cress or mustard seeds on top of a piece of damp kitchen roll or cotton wool and then place the pot in a warm place, like a window sill.

Cress is also great for older ones who are still kids at heart!

For more 'grow your own' advice, displays of award winning vegetables and access to seed experts, visit this year's Shrewsbury Flower Show at The Quarry on August 12 and 13.

Brushing up on interior's seasonal tasks

Now's the perfect time to repaint your radiators because you're not using your central heating, and radiators should only be painted when cold and turned off.

To avoid discolouration (caused by the heat), use radiator paint, especially if you want white radiators, as normal white metal paint will soon yellow.

Try Ronseal One Coat Radiator Paint, from £7.98 for 250ml, which is easy to apply and designed not to yellow.

The really good thing about it is that you don't need to use a primer and you don't need to do more than one coat, so it's brilliant for a quick makeover. It dries quickly to a tough gloss finish.

Savvy sellers now dropping home price

Tread the boards in a quiet home

GETTING to grips with creaking floorboards could be simpler than you think.

Here's our guide to fixing that annoying problem.

Floorboards creak when two pieces of wood rub together. There are several causes of this, but one of the most common is the nails that fix the floorboards to the joists becoming loose over time.

Movement

It's sometimes possible to solve the problem by pushing talcum powder or chalk between the boards, so try this first.

If this doesn't work, walk over the floorboards to find out where the movement is.

Providing the offending board's in good condition, you can remove the loose nails and then screw the board back down (using the same holes), which will make it more secure. Make sure you countersink the screw heads.

If the floorboard isn't in good condition, this may not be possible, so work out where the joist is – this should be obvious from the row of nails – and drill new pilot holes through the board into the joist. Again, countersink the screws.

It's easy enough to fix any creaking floorboards at home

If the end of the floorboard isn't resting on a joist, give it the support it needs by lifting up the board and screwing a 25mm x 50mm batten of wood to the side of the joist.

Lay the board on top of the batten and screw back in place. Never screw or nail into a floorboard unless you know what's underneath, as this could be dangerous.

Use a battery-operated cable and pipe detector first, although these detectors can be inaccurate if, for example, they pick up the nails in the boards.

A more foolproof method is to lift up the board and if you find any cables or pipes underneath, mark them on the surface so you can avoid them.

HOME sellers are now trying to increase their chances of attracting elusive buyers by dropping their asking prices.

With seven out of 10 homes which have gone on the market this year still waiting to find a buyer, sellers are at last beginning to cut asking prices, says the latest market survey from Rightmove.

The property website reckons July brought the first monthly fall in property prices recorded in 2011, with a drop in the average asking price of around £3,800 to £236,600.

Different

Rightmove director Miles Shipside says: "With seven out of 10 properties marketed so far this year still on the market, sellers in the second half of 2011 need to do something different to promote their property and increase their chances of catching elusive buyers."

Early findings from Rightmove's next Consumer Confidence Survey (July 25) show another fall in housing market confidence.

This muted buyer demand has resulted in average unsold stock per estate agency branch being the highest ever recorded by Rightmove at this time of year, currently standing at 78 properties.

Open weekend at new development

LEADING housebuilder Barratt West Midlands is opening the doors to its brand new view home this weekend at Bracken Gardens – the company's sought-after Rugeley development on Armitage Road.

The new Suffolk-style view home will give visitors the chance to find all of the space they have to enjoy in one of the company's most sought-after house styles.

"Our Suffolk-style house is ideal for buyers looking for more space for their growing family" comments Lisa Thacker, sales manager for Barratt West Midlands. "And we're delighted to open it this weekend to give home-buyers the opportunity to see how their home could take shape at Bracken Gardens."

With a modern breakfast kitchen, utility room and separate dining room on the ground floor, as well as a first floor that benefits from a cosy lounge and handy third bedroom/study, the Suffolk house is ideal for young families who are looking to take their next step on the property ladder.

And buyers receive excellent value for money thanks to a second floor that features two spacious bedrooms including a double bedroom with an en-suite, as well as a further family bathroom.

"Priced from just £186,950 the Suffolk house is ideal for anyone hoping to find more space" continued Lisa. "And we have a fantastic range of services to help homebuyers move.

"For example, our part exchange service is ideal for anyone who would like to move into a larger home but is having difficulty finding the right buyer."

Inspected

With part exchange, all purchasers need to do is reserve their new Barratt home, then the company arranges for the property to be inspected by two independent valuers and makes a fair offer based on the highest of the two valuations.

This means purchasers don't have to worry about things such as estate agent fees or viewings at inconvenient times. Plus Barratt is effectively a cash buyer, so there is no chance of a chain falling apart and purchasers can concentrate on enjoying their new home.

"And we also have our Movemaker Plus scheme, which is ideal for anyone who would prefer for their house to be sold on the open market" continued Lisa.

With Movemaker Plus, Barratt arranges two independent valuations of the existing property and sells it on the open market. If no buyer has been found within six weeks, Barratt guarantees to buy the home in part exchange instead .

There are no estate agent fees to worry about and buyers have peace of mind that they will be able to move to their brand new home, no matter what.

"We're thoroughly looking forward to unveiling this exceptional property this weekend" added Lisa. "And we expect demand for our current properties to be high, so I would advise anyone interested to waste no time in contacting our friendly and helpful sales team."

Bracken Gardens features a range of one-bedroom apartments available from £99,950 and two and three-bedroom houses priced from £132,450.

For more information, contact the sales office on 01543 491171 which is open from Thursday to Monday from 10am to 5pm. Alternatively, call the sales hotline on 0844 811 9933 open seven days a week from 8am to 9pm or log on to www.barratthomes.co.uk/brackengardens

Visitors will be able to see the new homes on offer at Bracken Gardens which is open to view this weekend

MOTORING NEWS AND REVIEWS

CHRONICLE MOTORING

powered by motors.co.uk

Your essential guide to the world of motoring compiled by Motoring Editor Sharon Walters

Vauxhall finds answers to electric range anxiety

YOU NEED the brainpower of a supercomputer to work out whether an electric car would save you money or really help the planet turn greener.

For starters, they're not cheap and may not even be all that climate friendly to run if the electricity they need comes from a coal-fired power station, belching out carbon dioxide like there's no tomorrow.

Even so, there's a growing market for cars that add a green sheen to the business of motoring, In the right circumstances they might even start to make sense.

By Ian Donaldson

Whatever the accountants might say, there's no stopping the car makers in their rush to turn green and the Vauxhall Ampera is simply the latest in a growing line of cars with boosted battery power.

It might, however, be the most sensible one so far. There are basically three ways of giving a car some electrical eco-cred. The obvious one is to replace the petrol or diesel engine with a great big battery and be done with it.

The trouble is that you'll forever be worrying about the car's range. Fear of getting stuck miles from home in the dark, with the battery flat and needing an eight hour charge has helped coin a new motoring term: range anxiety.

The second way to burnish your eco-halo is to go the Toyota Prius route, using a conventional petrol engine most of the time but backed by a biggish battery that helps out when it can. Most of the time you'll be on petrol power, but more than two million owners worldwide have succumbed to the charms of a Prius.

Then there's a third way, as found in the car featured here. The Ampera has a huge battery (actually, lots of smaller packs running safely out of harm's way down the spine of the car) which will take it up to 50 miles on a good day before a modest 1.4 litre petrol engine from an Astra takes over.

That way, says Vauxhall, most Amperas won't ever need to turn their petrol engines on because most of us drive no more than 40 miles a day.

So, no range anxiety (you can fill the Ampera's petrol tank like any other car, after all) and no road tax or congestion charges and a modest five per cent hit on company car tax. Oh, and an electric fill up takes four hours from your home supply and costs about £1.

It even looks like a rather smart conventional car (it's built in the States and sales here are forecast as modest) with a comfy interior, decent boot and nothing apart from its badges to denote you as a green eco warrior.

Push the go-faster pedal to the floor and the Astra-sized Ampera scurries off with just a bit of tyre noise and reaches 30mph as quickly as a hot hatch. It will touch 60mph in around nine seconds (a respectable figure) but is limited to 100mph to save battery power.

Which is another way of saying that slower is much better with the Ampera, if you want to go electric for as long as possible. Driving normally on the press introduction (around a very flat Amsterdam) my car ran out of current at 38 miles and the petrol motor kicked in seamlessly to take over.

An impressive array of instruments keeps the driver informed

An impressive performance, I thought, but you need to read on before placing your order for an Ampera, due here in early 2012.

It might use cheap electricity but the car will cost £28,995 and that's after a £5,000 government grant has been deducted.

There are an awful lot of fine conventionally powered cars available at that price, so you'll need some eco fire in your belly to favour an Ampera.

Longer term, running costs should beat a more ordinary machine and there's an eight year or 100,000 mile warranty on the battery.

And, unlike owners of a purely electrical car, you won't need a second vehicle on standby for longer runs.

Even so, it looks an expensive way to save money.

But if you're tempted and can afford it, the Ampera makes a convincing move into the future. Probably.

Fleet show boosts LPG

FUEL COMPANY Autogas has seen a surge in interest from fleet managers following the conversion of a Mazda 6 (pictured above) to run on LPG.

Autogas and Mazda invited fleet managers to get behind the wheel of the converted Mazda and discover how they can run a greener fleet and save up to 40 per cent on running costs.

Autogas key accounts manager, Paul Oxford, said interest in the LPG vehicle exceeded expectations: "We have been working with Mazda for several months to offer fleet customers an alternative to petrol and diesel fuelled models, but this was the first time we had showcased the Mazda 6 LPG to potential customers.

"Many fleet managers took up the offer of a test drive and Mazda received significant interest from people requesting more information on how LPG could benefit their fleet. Immediately after a test drive, one fleet customer confirmed there and then that he would be adding the Mazda 6 LPG to his fleet list."

The car is fitted with the latest LPG technology – the Prins Liquimax system which uses existing petrol injectors to inject the LPG. The system is only available on the Mazda 6. However as more vehicles are approved it will allow LPG to be fitted to the latest direct-injection petrol engines.

The most attractive benefit for fleet users is cost. As LPG sells at an average 77.3 pence per litre, compared to 135.7 pence for petrol and 139.7 pence for diesel, savings can add up to 40 per cent.

Network

Liquefied Petroleum Gas, or LPG, has an established, easily accessible refuelling network and is available from 1,400 refuelling points up and down the country. Most Autogas Limited LPG refuelling sites are on Shell forecourts on motorways and major trunk roads.

"When much is being made of emerging alternative fuel technology, which can have its limitations, it's worth reminding people that LPG is a here-and-now fuel which is used by over 7 million drivers in Europe. In fact globally it is the third most popular road fuel after petrol and diesel," Mr Oxford said.

"What drivers really like is the fact that it's the same as driving a petrol car with no compromise on vehicle range and performance. Given over 10 per cent of UK forecourts now retail autogas means drivers don't have to go out of their way to refuel. To make life easier we provide a free to download satnav site locator on our website"

The environmental benefits will also be attractive to fleet managers.

"Vehicles running on LPG produce far less carbon dioxide than equivalent petrol or diesel vehicles, but they also emit far fewer of the other harmful emissions such as oxides of nitrogen and microscopic particles, known as PM10s, which are found in diesel and petrol and have a damaging effect on the environment," Mr Oxford said.

He said European tests showed vehicles running on petrol could produce up to 20.3 per cent more carbon dioxide than those running on LPG. LPG vehicles also emitted fewer oxides of nitrogen or small particle emissions.

Healthy tyres will lead to a happy holiday claim experts

TYRESAFE is urging motorists to inspect their tyres before heading off on holiday to avoid a tyre-related "wash out".

In pre-holiday checks, drivers should include making sure tyres have adequate tread depth, ensuring tyres are properly inflated for the load being carried (including the spare) and making sure the general condition of the tyres is good.

Drivers failing to make these checks are more likely to be involved in a tyre-related incident, potentially ruining their summer break, warns TyreSafe.

"Whether you're heading overseas in your car, or staying in the UK, correct tyre maintenance is vital to reduce the risk of being stranded by the roadside or involved in an accident as a result of a tyre related issue," says Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe.

"Pre-travel checks which can prevent such problems are simple to do and only take a few minutes to perform."

As well reducing the chance of an accident, other benefits of correct tyre care include longer tyre life and reduced fuel bills.

Expense

When tyres are under-inflated their rolling resistance increases and more fuel is required. One TyreSafe member estimates that when tyres are under-inflated by just six psi, or around 20 per cent, fuel bills rise by three per cent.

Furthermore, under-inflated tyres cause unnecessary expense for drivers as they wear out much faster and need replacing sooner. When run at 80 per cent of recommended pressure, it is estimated tyre life falls to around 75 per cent. At 60 per cent pressure, tyre life falls to just 35 per cent.

When checking pressures, drivers should ensure tyres are inflated to the correct levels for the load carried. Many vehicles require higher tyre pressures when carrying extra passengers or heavy items such as suitcases, bikes or roof boxes. Correct tyre pressures can be found either in the driver's handbook, inside the fuel filler cap, or on a plate on the driver's door sill. Alternatively, iPhone users can download the free TyreSafe app which gives drivers the correct tyre pressure settings for their vehicle.

As important as tyre pressure is tread depth. As Jackson explains, TyreSafe has devised a simple way for drivers to tell whether their tyres have enough tread.

Adequate

"The British weather is renowned for its unpredictable nature, so tyres need adequate tread depth to be able to cope with wet roads in the event of a sudden downpour. By visiting the TyreSafe website, drivers can see how to take the 20p test to see if their tyres have adequate tread depth to keep them safe and legal," adds Jackson.

For more information visit www.tyresafe.org.

How to check your tyre pressures

1. Check your tyre pressures at least once a month or before a long journey.
2. Pressures should be checked against the manufacturer's recommended level. This can be found in the vehicle handbook and on a plate inside the fuel filler flap or on the driver's door sill.
3. Check the pressure when tyres are cold (i.e. when you have travelled less than two miles).
4. If you are carrying a full load of passengers or luggage or towing a trailer or caravan, tyre pressures should be increased in line with the manufacturer's recommendations. Details can be found in the vehicle handbook.
5. Ensure a reliable and accurate pressure gauge is used.
6. Check the pressure in all four tyres and the spare.
7. While checking pressures, give the tyre a visual inspection. Remove stones and other objects embedded in the tread. Look out for any bulges, lumps or cuts.
8. If you are unsure about tyre pressure or condition go to an approved fitting centre and speak to the experts.

Drivers are more likely to experience roadside misery if they fail to check their tyres before going on holiday

Local Company Expanding Nationwide

We Want Any Car's new fleet take to the road

We Want Any Car, established in 2009 at Cannock, Staffordshire, are expanding their online car buying company through-out England and Wales.

Their new fleet of 30 vans can now be seen up and down the country, We Want Any Car have currently over 50 offices now open and aim to double this figure by the end of the year, offering excellent customer service, home visit and collection facilities.

We Want Any Car have a simple, easy to use website, where customers enter their registration number to obtain a free valuation for their car and then select the nearest office to where they live for an appointment, 7 days a week.

Area Manager Russell Greene, who is responsible for the London and M25 regions, is seen here handing over a new van to Malcolm Owen, Office Manager for Luton and Stevenage.

Operations Director Tim Clapham said: "With over 10 offices now open in the Midlands region and the amount of recommendations we were achieving, it only seemed natural to expand the business further afield. Many customers were travelling more than 80 miles to sell us their car, and so to cope with this demand new offices were opened. This in turn helps us promote our company and inform the public that there is an alternative in the car buying market.

We look forward to an exciting and busy year, with further expansions planned for 2012."

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:
1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's Mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any KC documentation, if pedigree.
Whilst Midland News Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

Chase Athletic players and coaches with their Fair Play award

Fair play as team earns recognition for respect

A JUNIOR football team has picked up FA recognition to prove you can win trophies and still play fair.

Chase Athletic Juniors will have 10 teams playing in the Lichfield & District Recreational League this coming season. Last campaign was the most successful one for the club, which has sides from under-7 through to under-14s level.

Two sides – the under-11s and under-12s Juniors – won the league and cup double, the under-10s won their division and reached the cup final, the under-13s were title winners, while the under-9s won the Shield and also gained promotion. The under-12s Boys missed out on promotion on the last game of the campaign, but still enjoyed their best season to date.

And, last week, the club was recognised for its efforts by also picking up the Fair Play award from the Staffordshire FA. The honour rewarded the Charter Standard club for its conduct on and off the field and the attitude of its players.

The award was presented to club representatives by the FA's youth development officer Gerald Sinstadt before the Walsall v Wolves pre-season friendly at the Banks's Stadium.

Ethos

Club spokesman Steve Taylor said: "We are all really proud of everyone involved. The ethos of the club remains the same, that we play for enjoyment and we respect each other and the opposition."

Four of the club's teams are looking to strengthen their squads as they look to build on their 2010/11 success. The under-8s, the under-11s, under-12s Boys and under-13s Juniors are on the hunt for new players.

For the under-8s call 07841 115377 or 07824 698841. For the under-11s call 07949 514155, ring 07976 247338 for the under-12s Boys and 07866 470448 for the under-13s Juniors.

Eighth loss of season

HOCKEY

STREETLY EXILES XI 5
CANNOCK XI 0

CANNOCK travelled to Streetly on a Wednesday evening and fell to their eighth defeat of the summer as they could not cope with the home side's spare man throughout.

Cannock could only field 10 players for a game that would have been very different if each side had its full strength team out.

Cannock defended well for periods but soon struggled with a lack of real threat in the attacking half meaning that Streetly were rarely put under any pressure. When they were, Cannock look dangerous.

However, chances were few and far between, young keeper Ollie Balcombe performed well in goal for the visitors but do little to stop the constant home side pressure which resulted in such a one-sided scoreline.

Meanwhile Hatherton continue to top the table after a great 4-1 win over rivals Lichfield. However, Chase park slipped to a 2-0 home defeat at the hand of Old Wulfrunians.

CANNOCK LADIES A XI 1
CHARLIE'S ANGELS XI 6

Cannock Ladies crashed to their heaviest defeat of the summer against the runaway leaders of the division.

The Angels showed, the young Cannock side how to play counter attacking hockey at pace and how to make to most out of your opportunities. New Captain Stacy Mound scored the only Cannock goal.

The result does not take away the great summer of progress made by all but the girls will want to put the record straight when they play Telford in the penultimate game of the summer league, before coach Alex Hill's attentions turn to the return of the winter season.

Darren's net gain in Open contest

CANNOCK Tennis Club served up a treat as players took part in an open singles tournament.

Seventeen players, including club members and visiting players took part in the tournament on Sunday (July 24) in baking heat.

Players were split in to three groups, two of six and one of five. Players in the first two groups played each other over eight games in a round robin style format with the five-man group battling for supremacy over 10 games.

Some 40 games were played in total with the total won tallied up at the end and the highest games scorer in each group going through to the semi-finals.

Joining them in the last four was the remaining highest point scorer across the three groups.

In Group 1 Josh Wilson was the dominant force dropping just five games against his five opponents and racking up an impressive 35 points to win the group by a wide margin.

In Group 2 Darren Hughes, who plays for Cannock's A team, reigned supreme winning the group with 31 points, while Group C was won convincingly by Dan Maxwell who amassed 33 points.

Andy Richardson, who plays for Cannock's A and B team, made it into the semi-finals after becoming the next best point scorer out of the three groups with 28 points.

Deserved

In the semi-finals Hughes proved to be strong for Maxwell beating him over a set 6-2. In a tight contest Wilson got the better of Richardson beating him 7-5.

Hughes then became Cannock Tennis Club's Open Champion for 2011, beating Wilson 6-3 in the final. He was presented with a trophy and a bottle of bubbly for his well deserved victory.

Beaten semi-finalist Richardson, a spokesman for the club, said: "It was a really great turnout on the day. It was good to see so many good players come along and take part in a really competitive day of tennis."

The club is now looking to arrange a doubles tournament in September with a date to set to be arranged.

The club plays on three astro courts based at the Cannock Cricket and Hockey Club, in Church Lane, Hatherton.

The club play in the Wilson Staffordshire Inter-Club Tennis league with the men's A team playing in Division 2 South while the B team play in Division 6 South. The club need new players for both team's and are also looking for players to join to play social tennis.

Adult membership is just £70 for the year.

Club night is a Monday evening and members regularly arrange to play either doubles or singles social games during the week and at a weekend.

For more information contact Andy Richardson on 07866 212026. Also visit www.cannocktennis.co.uk

Lichfield Friary Lawn Tennis Club is offering a subsidised tennis coaching camp next week after receiving part funding from Lichfield District Council.

Aimed at beginners and occasional players aged 5-11, the tennis camp, from August 1 to 5 is free if you sign up as a new member.

An annual subscription for under-10s is £30 per year including use of all courts, priority play during weekends and some evenings including a free Wednesday junior club night.

All tennis balls are provided free of charge. Price for the camp week for non-members is £40.

The tennis camp will include the basic strokes of tennis, games, drills and competitions plus for the first time 'Tennis Freestyle', the equivalent of 'tricks football'.

The camp takes place from 9.30am to 12.30pm at Lichfield Friary Lawn Tennis Club, Darnford Lane, Lichfield, next to the Horse and Jockey pub.

Girls on track to stay competitive

HEDNESFORD United Girls FC swapped their footie kit for race suits and crash helmets.

They showed they are just as competitive off the pitch as on it with a day out at Midland Karting in Fradley.

The under-12s did not hold back with the fastest lap time going to new striker Kate Clinton. The Under 14s also showed no fear with Ellie Bilson taking the medal for the fastest lap as the girls scrapped it out for team honours.

The under-12s are moving to 9 a-side in September and are looking for experienced players to add to their existing squad.

Players in school years 6 or 7 from September can contact Dave on 07919 105630 for more details, or visit www.hugfc.com

Runners set off for the race started by Sally Gunnell

Star Gunnell impressed by Chase venue

SHE is the only woman in history to hold all four major track titles in her specialist event concurrently – and her love of athletics was still plain to see when she visited a running event at Cannock Chase.

Sally Gunnell was at the Love Life Love Running festival on Saturday which returned to the Chase for a second year.

The 44-year-old mother-of-three, who held Olympic, World, European and Commonwealth titles for the 400 metres hurdles at the same time, was an inspirational presence at the two-day event at Birches Valley. It included a 10K on Saturday and a six-hour challenge the following day.

Among the children's events was a sprint of 60m against the clock.

Around 250 people ran in the 10k while the Sunday event saw 43 teams of two, four or six compete to finish as many laps of the 7km course as possible.

Organiser Sam Wowk said: "Sally Gunnell was really impressed with the venue."

Joining Sally Gunnell at the event was Steph Twell, a middle distance runner who won Bronze in the 1500m at last year's Commonwealth Games and Gold in the World Junior Championships in 2008.

County champ Barker heads Merit title bid

BOWLS

COUNTY champion Craig Barker heads Staffordshire's bid to lift the prestigious BCGBA Senior Merit title this weekend.

Staffordshire send a formidable four to the finals at the Meole Brace Bowling Club in Shrewsbury, 10 am start, with Barker joined by Jason Groom (Penn), Nick Newey (Woodfield) and Mick Ledwidge (Chadsmoor Progressive) in a high-quality 64 strong field.

Groom opens against the experienced Matt Gilmore with Newey also facing a tough test in Cumbria's Martin Gilpin.

Current Midland Masters champion Ledwidge faces Warwick and Worcester's Jason Galvin while Barker goes head-to-head with North Lancs and Fylde champion Paul Brett.

Two names stand out in the competition, 2009 winner and Shropshire bowler Callum Wraight and Cheshire's irrepressible Glyn Cookson.

Meanwhile, a stunning performance by Willenhall Nordley A at St Georges saw them come away with a well-deserved 13-shot victory in the Summit Premier Bowls League premier division.

Leaders M&B Cheslyn Hay A took a one-point lead over Greville Arms thanks to a crushing 62-shot win against Dudley Dell.

Greville Arms slipped to a 13-shot defeat at Boldmere St Michaels.

Chadsmoor Progressive had a handsome 64-shot win over the Windmill. The George thumped Tanworth in Arden by 78 shots.

Event will be a first for the city

ATHLETICS

LICHFIELD hosts its first ever city centre athletics event on August Bank Holiday Sunday (28) with the advent of the Keely's Lichfield Athletics 1,2,3 event.

Organised by Lichfield running event specialists KP Events, the programme forms the running middle in a cycling sandwich with the Lichfield City Centre Cycle Racing taking place from 9.30am and the athletics slots into a 12.30-13.30pm slot with three running events – a family 1k, a junior 2k and a senior 3k – round the city centre course.

There will be prizes awarded for each event.

IT'S A CLASSIC AS VILLANS BEATEN

CHASETOWN FC

Potters fail to fire against Scholars

Goalscorer Alex Steadman in action against Stoke City

CHASETOWN 2 STOKE CITY 0

AN EARLY goal in each half gave Chasetown a 2-0 win over a Stoke City XI in their first home friendly of the pre-season.

Stoke's mix of trialists and reserve players did not blend together well and a near full-strength Scholars side took advantage.

Chasetown took the lead with the very first attack of the game. From a move down the right, a Ramone Stephens cross allowed Alex Steadman two chances to find the net and on the second he was successful for his first Scholars goal.

Ryan Price reacted well to an attack by Karim Rossi in the ninth minute while a free kick was headed over the bar Ryan O'Reilly. A Chasetown free kick on 18 minutes saw Mark Branch's curling effort fly wide.

Jake Sedgemore's free kick on 32 minutes was headed into the net by a visiting defender but the own goal was disallowed for offside.

Seven minutes into the second half and an attack through the centre allowed Dean Perrow to make up for a quiet first half as he fired home Chasetown's second.

Chasetown take on Tamworth tonight (Thursday), kick off 7.45pm. Admission is £6 for adults and £3 concessions.

CHASETOWN 2 ASTON VILLA XI 1

CHASETOWN kept up their impressive pre-season form with a win over an Aston Villa XI which played some extremely attractive football, but which only seemed to spur on Chasetown to play even better football and secure an encouraging victory.

As pre-season friendlies go, this was a classic, which would have left 513 supporters very satisfied with the standard of football from both sides. Even the numerous substitutions never spoiled the flow of the game.

The only negative to the evening was Danny Smith being carried off on a stretcher after 16 minutes, which forced Andy Cox to use substitute Adebayo Ajidahun for longer than he had probably imagined.

Dean Perrow forced Elliott Parish into a save, immediately after the restart following Smith's injury and then Villa rode their luck on the half hour when Daniel Devine's back pass to Parish saw the Villa custodian smash the ball straight at Ramone Stephens. Luckily for the visitors the ball ricocheted wide for a goal kick.

Although Villa had started brightly, when Kevin MacDonald's men took the lead on 32 minutes, it was perhaps against the run of play. After a corner had only been partially cleared, Richard Bryan fired in a shot which seemed to deflect and wrong foot Ryan Price in the Chasetown goal.

Chasetown were level five minutes before the break, when Dean Perrow clinically shot past Parish, to net his fourth goal in four pre-season games.

Villa's star man, skipper Daniel Johnson, tested Ryan Price with a long range effort on the stroke of half time but Price was equal to it.

The usual flurry of pre-season substitutions did not seem to interrupt the flow of an end-to-end entertaining game of football.

Just short of the hour, Courtney Cameron's looping header was easily saved by Ryan Price, and within two minutes, Chasetown had gained the lead.

First, sub keeper Benjamin Siegrist made a spectacular save to deprive Alex Steadman, but, from the resultant corner, taken short by Ramone Stephens to Jake Sedgemore, the latter's pinpoint cross was headed home by Malachi Farquharson.

Villa's best chance of an equaliser came in the 77th minute when substitute Callum Robinson rounded goalkeeper Ryan Price, but took the ball too wide.

Welcome return for Edwards

WALSALL WOOD 0 CHASETOWN 2

SEVERAL NEW faces made their first appearances in the Chasetown blue as the Scholars took a fine 2-0 win in their friendly at Walsall Wood.

With a number of first team players in action at AFC Wulfrunians the same evening, this fixture gave a few reserve players the chance to step into the limelight, while Karl Edwards made a surprise and welcome return against their West Midland League opponents.

The visitors took the lead on 34 minutes through Mark Branch's looping right-footed shot.

Manager Andy Cox made several changes throughout the second half. Lewis Taylor-Boyce replaced Edwards on 68 minutes and four minutes later doubled Chasetown's lead.

AFC WULFRUNIANS 0 CHASETOWN 5

With some of the squad at Walsall Wood, boss Charlie Blakemore ran the rule over a mixture of established first teamers and some of the new boys.

Last time The Scholars were at Castlecroft Stadium, they suffered a heartbreaking FA Cup penalty shoot-out defeat, so it was a positive start to take the lead inside three minutes through new boy Darren Stride.

The game was over as a contest on 15 minutes as Dean Perrow lobbed the home keeper. The goal of the night came just short of the half hour through Ramone Stephens, who later added a fourth. Perrow made it five.

● Chris Deakin was twice on target as Chasetown went down 6-1 to Midland Alliance side Heath Hayes last Thursday (July 21). Degville, Haseley, Hancox and Waple were also on target with Mark Potts grabbing a consolation.

Jack Pope celebrates his hat-trick with dad Gary

Jack the lad is hat-trick hero

PENKRIDGE stalwart Gary Pope has taken thousands of wickets down the years – but he has been trumped by 11-year-old son Jack who claimed a hat-trick.

The Penkridge Middle School pupil achieved the feat for the under-15s against Fordhouses, taking 4-12 in all – in the same week as his 42-year-old dad returned seasonal best figures of 6-19 against Bloxwich.

Pope jnr, who normally captains the Under-13s and bowls medium quick, only stepped up to the Under-15s as they were a player short.

But the all-rounder, who plays at district level, achieved something his dad is still striving for in league cricket after three decades in the game.

Gary, who works as a landscape gardener, has never claimed a hat-trick in league cricket, but did bag a treble playing for his school in Western Australia.

"With the amount of overs I've bowled down the years, I should have done it by now," said Gary, who initially joined Penkridge as their overseas player.

Jack, who also plays football for Penkridge Under-15s, is one of several young cricketers being groomed for the future at the Staffs Clubs title favourites. And there is another Pope being groomed for cricketing stardom – eight-year-old daughter Lexie, who is to start playing next year.

Win number eight keeps thirds on top

CANNOCK CRICKET

CANNOCK 3RDS (328-6) BEAT CANNOCK AND RUGELEY 3RDS (144) BY 184 RUNS

CANNOCK recorded league win number 8 to maintain their position at the top of the table.

Winning the toss and batting first Cannock got off to a good start thanks to a half century stand between Dave Chapman (42) and Ben Traat (23).

With the score on 85-2 Dan Wood joined Aaron Wilkes and by the time Wilkes was next man out for 52 the score had passed the 200 mark. With 14 overs remaining Cannock pressed on and Wood passed 100 to record his maiden century. Cannock's innings continued to gain momentum, including 27 from James Caswell, and they closing on 328-6 with 170 runs coming from the last 20 overs. Wood was still there on 129 at the close .

The C&R reply started well with Beech and Hughes batting carefully but looking to score when possible before Beech fell to Dan Bowker for 19.

Wickets continued to fall with brothers Tom (3-32) and Matt Bull (2-22) putting Cannock in control. A stubborn 26 from captain Nigel Skyte gave the visitors hopes of salvaging a draw but the return of Jack Twigger (2-14) and Dan Wood (2-28) wrapped up the innings with five overs to spare.

CANNOCK U-15S (103-3) BEAT WIGHTWICK AND FINCHFIELD U-15 (90-3) BY 13 RUNS

Cannock secured the runners-up spot thanks to a tricky 13 run victory away at Wightwick.

Winning the toss and batting, despite a pitch that resembled rolled mud, Cannock made a steady start with runs coming at about four an over.

Dan Starkey scored 24 and Dan Wood 23 and a late assault by Connor Shingler, scoring a quick 41, bolstered the total to see the innings close on 103-3.

A wicket in the first over of Wightwick's reply was followed by a partnership of 78 between McAlpine (39) and Edwards (42) leaving the hosts needing just 26 off five overs.

The bowling of Connor Shingler (3-8), Keiron Squire (3-10) and Jack Twigger (2-20) bought about a dramatic collapse to see the Wightwick innings go from 78-1 to 90-9 after the allotted 20 overs.

Smith encouraged by signing of Thorne

HEDNESFORD TOWN 2 MANSFIELD TOWN 3

DESPITE putting up a strong performance against Blue Square Bet Premier side Mansfield Town, Hednesford Town came up just short in a five goal thriller at Keys Park.

The first half was a tight affair with Mansfield's Lee Stevenson coming the closest.

The visitors took the lead in the 51st minute when Matthew Green was able to roll the ball home into an empty net.

In the 63rd minute it was 2-0 when former Hednesford man Louis Briscoe scored from the spot. Within three minutes Hednesford were back in it as Alex Melbourne's cross was powerfully headed home by Danny Quinn.

Mansfield restored their two goal advantage in the 71st minute when Tom Naylor slotted home from inside the six-yard box. With four minutes remaining Quinn reduced the arrears again.

HEDNESFORD TOWN

HEDNESFORD TOWN 4 OADBY TOWN 1

Hednesford continued their pre-season campaign with a 4-1 victory over East Midland Counties side Oadby Town, who had stepped in to take the place of Tamworth.

The Pitmen got off to the perfect start when Darren Campion was able to smash home from inside the box in the fourth minute.

It was 2-0 in the 23rd minute when new signing Ollie Thorne slotted home.

In the 27th minute the Pitmen were forced to put defender Decio Gomes and he conceded a goal right on half-time when Kelven Phillips slotted home for the visitors.

After a flurry of substitutions there were no further goals until the 82nd minute when Nick Wellecomme found the net. And in the final minute Campion poked home a fourth.

HEDNESFORD TOWN 1 STOURBRIDGE 1

A second half goal apiece for Hednesford and Stourbridge saw honours even in what was supposed to be a friendly match.

Following some very rough treatment meted out to Jamie Osborne, a bad tempered 20 minutes exploded with a mass brawl taking place centred around ex-Hednesford midfielder Josh Craddock.

It took until the last 20 minutes for Marvin Robinson to break the deadlock, but Ryan Rowe equalised on 76 minutes.

Meanwhile, boss Rob Smith said he was 'very encouraged' by the signing of central defender Ollie Thorne from Corby Town.

Thorne had captained Forest Green Rovers at 19 and Smith said: "Ollie has played in two promotion winning teams, Braintree Town and Newport County, and that sort of experience will be invaluable this season."

Winning streak comes to an end

PENKRIDGE 1ST XI (237) LOST TO MILFORD HALL (238-2) BY EIGHT WICKETS

PENKRIDGE'S fantastic winning streak came to an end against resurgent Milford Hall.

Penkridge were asked to bat and openers Alex Watson (60) and Saleem Malik (87) gave them a perfect platform with a stand of 138.

Only Tom Chew (38) posted a score of significance as Penkridge were bowled out for 237 with a ball to spare.Milford captain Guy Bulpitt (4-62) was the pick of the attack.

Milford's openers also laid a solid base with Mark Thompson and Tom Sturmey scoring 94 and 60 respectively in a stand of 148. Richard Jones hit 39 from 26 balls as Milford comfortably chased down their target in the 48th over.

PENKRIDGE 2ND XI (201-2) BEAT MILFORD HALL (200) BY EIGHT WICKETS

Penkridge seconds took large strides to retaining their Division 1A title with a resounding win over second placed Milford. Penkridge restricted Milford to 200-8 from 50 overs, Simon Parnaby leading the way with 4-49 before completing a fine all round game with a quickfire 52 from 37 balls. Chad Clarke (91 no) and Ian Brown (29 no) eased Penkridge home in the 40th over.

PENKRIDGE CC

PENKRIDGE 3RDS (209-8) BEAT WOMBOURNE (68) BY 149 RUNS

Penkridge 3rds kept the pressure on league leaders Lichfield, by beating fellow title contenders Wombourne.

Penkridge were 37-4 before reaching 209-8 from 50 overs. Mohammed Shafiq (60). In reply, Khalid Sadiq (5-29) and Mohammed Ishfaq (3-12) helped skittle Wombourne out in 32 overs.
